OLR Bill Analysis
SB 994

AN ACT ALLOWING MUNICIPALITIES TO COVER THE PAY GAP FOR DISABLED POLICE OFFICERS.

SUMMARY

This bill allows a municipality to establish a program to pay a municipal police officer who is injured and disabled in the performance of his or her duty the difference between what the officer would have made working and the amount he or she is receiving from workers’ compensation and other benefits. The municipality may pay such amount until the officer reaches age 65.
