In Support of 931, 935

To the Members of the Education Committee:

The cost of living went up increasingly since 2008 however our paychecks have not increased. We are hard working and dedicated teachers, we devote ourselves everyday to see that our children development in all areas. So why is it so hard not to pay us what we are worth so that we can see our worth?

Ms. Petals and Ms. Muco