Explanation

The amendment strikes the underlying bill and results in the fiscal impact described below. The amendment bans various activities for specified specimens of African animals and results in a potential cost for incarceration or probation and a potential revenue gain from fines. On average, the marginal cost to the state for incarcerating an offender for the year is $1,800<sup>1</sup> while the average marginal cost for supervision in the community is less than $700<sup>2</sup> each year.

<sup>1</sup> Inmate marginal cost is based on increased consumables (e.g. food, clothing, water, sewage, living supplies, etc.) This does not include a change in staffing costs or utility expenses because these would only be realized if a unit or facility opened.

<sup>2</sup> Probation marginal cost is based on services provided by private providers and only includes costs that increase with each additional participant. This does not
