Explanation

The amendment removes maple syrup and honey products from cottage foods and results in a General Fund revenue loss of $200 per year. Currently, there are four maple syrup and honey producers that pay a licensing fee of $50 per year.

It requires the Department of Agriculture (DoAg) to adopt regulations regarding the oversight of honey and maple syrup production in certain locations. This has no fiscal impact, as DoAg currently has the expertise for this purpose.

The preceding Fiscal Impact statement is prepared for the benefit of the members of the General Assembly, solely for the purposes of information, summarization and explanation and does not represent the intent of the General Assembly or either chamber thereof for any purpose. In general, fiscal impacts are based upon a variety of informational sources, including the analyst’s professional knowledge. Whenever applicable, agency data is consulted as part of the analysis, however final products do not necessarily reflect an assessment from any specific department.
