AN ACT CONCERNING REVIEW OF ELECTION LAWS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2019) (a) There is established an Election Law Review Commission for the purpose of reviewing the state's election laws, including, but not limited to, laws regarding (1) the timing of primaries to be held for the nomination of candidates for election, (2) the election of certain constitutional officers, and (3) the regulation of political campaigns. The commission shall consist of the cochairpersons of the joint standing committee of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to elections, the ranking members of said joint standing committee and any other member appointed by such cochairpersons in consultation with such ranking members. The terms of all members of the commission shall end with the termination of each member's term or holding of such office or leadership position, as applicable, whichever occurs first. A majority of the membership shall constitute a quorum and all actions of the commission shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the full committee membership. The Election Law Review Commission shall meet as often as may be necessary to perform its duties.

(b) On or before February 15, 2020, and annually thereafter, the Election Law Review Commission shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to elections, in accordance with section 11-4a of the general statutes, and make any recommendation for legislation to address any issue discussed in such report.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
