The House of Representatives was called to order at 11:30 o’clock a.m., Speaker Joe Aresimowicz in the Chair.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Rabbi Alan Lefkowitz of Windsor, Connecticut.

The following is the prayer:

Let us pray. In Eastern Europe, it was the custom of Jews to begin teaching the Torah laws to their children by introducing them to the book of Leviticus first. Only after the children had mastered Leviticus, would they be introduced to the books of Genesis and Exodus. Why begin teaching children the third book of Scripture first? The special significance in Leviticus for youngsters who are discovering the world of Judaism is the word and value of sacrifice.

The Hebrew word for sacrifice is Korban, which is derived from the Hebrew root word Karov - to bring ourselves closer to God. For many, the word “sacrifice” means to do without, giving it the same meaning as “surrender.” But when our people were bringing their wares as a sacrifice, the population understood this as to become closer to God.

It says in Leviticus: God said: "Let one who has a bullock, bring a bullock; let one who has a ram, bring a ram; let one who has a dove, bring a dove; let one who has none of these bring a flour offering; and let one who has no flour bring words." So, how do we become closer to God; through our prayer and sacrifice - both are similar to one another.

The book of Leviticus also contains one of the most important statements of morality ever written: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Through our work, may we present ourselves as an offering of peace to the Lord. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Zullo of the 99th District.
