JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Wednesday, March 27, 2019

The Senate was called to order at 1:34 p.m., the President in the Chair.

The prayer was offered by the Senate Deputy Chaplain, Reverend Bonita Grubbs of New Haven, Connecticut.

The following is the prayer:

Your creative power, O God, is at work in and around us. As individuals, we have principles by which we live and make decisions.

The backgrounds and experiences of everyone gathered here today are different. Their journey to these hallowed halls is both individual and purposeful, like one piece of thread inserted into a needle, and requires the use of keen insight, eyesight and foresight.

Therefore, I beseech You to shine Your light on them and the proposals presented today. Connect all who gather here to the advancement of compassion, justice, fairness and equality.

Through the collective work of this day, help all to shape the diversity of opinions into a beautifully woven and color-filled garment of mutuality and inclusion. Surprise us with the joy of working together and achieving much for the good of all Connecticut’s cities and towns. In Your name. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senator Abrams of the 13th led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
