12-561, 12-577, 12-578f, 12-578aa, 12-801, 12-806, 12-810, 12-811, 12-812, 12-816, 17a-713 and 53-278a of the general statutes, as amended by this act, shall not be effective unless the following conditions have been met:

(1) On or after the effective date of this section, the Governor enters into new tribal-state compacts with the Mashantucket Pequot Tribe and the Mohegan Tribe of Indians of Connecticut pursuant to the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, P.L. 100-497, 25 USC 2710(d)(3) concerning the authorization of sports wagering that: (A) Allows each tribe to offer sports wagering on Indian lands and through an electronic sports wagering platform, (B) provides that the authorization of sports wagering in person and through an electronic sports wagering platform in this state does not relieve each tribe from the tribe's obligation to contribute a percentage of the gross operating revenues of video facsimile games to the state as provided in the Mashantucket Pequot memorandum of understanding and the Mohegan memorandum of understanding, as the case may be, and (C) provides that the authorization of sports wagering in person and through an electronic sports wagering platform in this state does not terminate the moratoria on the operation of video facsimile games by the tribes pursuant to section 15(a) of the Mashantucket Pequot procedures and section 15(a) of the Mohegan compact.

(2) The new tribal-state compacts are approved or deemed approved by the Secretary of the United States Department of the Interior pursuant to the federal Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, P.L. 100-497, 25 USC 2701 et seq., and its implementing regulations. If such approval is overturned by a court in a final judgment, which is not appealable, the authorization for sports wagering provided under this section shall cease to be effective.

(3) The new tribal-state compacts are approved by the General Assembly pursuant to section 3-6c of the general statutes.

(b) On and after July 1, 2019, the commissioner may issue licenses to operate sports wagering in person, licenses to operate sports wagering on a platform, and sports wagering vendor licenses, as applicable, in accordance with sections 3 and 4 of this act.

Sec. 3. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2019) (a) No person may conduct sports wagering in person in this state unless the person is an operator eligible to conduct sports wagering in person and such operator has obtained a license from the commissioner pursuant to this section.

(b) (1) Each applicant for a license pursuant to this section shall submit a completed application on forms prescribed by the commissioner. Such application may require the applicant to submit any information the commissioner deems pertinent to the issuance of such license. Each applicant, except the Connecticut Lottery Corporation, shall submit to state and national criminal history records checks, conducted in accordance with section 29-17a of the general statutes, before such license is issued.

(2) Each applicant for a license to operate sports wagering in person shall submit with its application a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred thousand dollars. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, each such license shall expire biennially on the Proposed Substitute Bill No. 7331 anniversary date of the issuance of such license unless renewed in according with this section. The nonrefundable application fee for such renewal shall be one hundred thousand dollars. Upon the issuance or renewal of a license, the licensee shall pay a licensing fee of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars to the commissioner. The Connecticut Lottery Corporation shall be exempt from the application fee, renewal application fee and licensing fee for a license to operate sports wagering in person.

(3) If licensed pursuant to this section, (A) a person or business organization operating the off-track betting system may conduct sports wagering in person at any of the system facilities authorized for off-track betting under section 12-571a of the general statutes, and (B) the the corporation.

(4) Applications for renewal of any such license shall be on such form as prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) (1) The commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt of a completed license or renewal application, grant or deny the license or renewal application. Any holder of a license issued pursuant to this section who submits an application to renew such license prior to the expiration of such license may continue to perform the activities authorized by such license until the commissioner approves or denies such renewal application.

(2) Failure by any operator eligible to conduct sports wagering in person that holds a license pursuant to this section or any off-track betting facility or high tier claim center to comply with the requirements of this section and any regulations adopted pursuant to section 5 of this act shall constitute grounds for the commissioner to investigate such licensee or facility. A violation of the provisions of section 4 of this act by an operator eligible to conduct sports wagering in person that is licensed pursuant to this section and section 4 of this act shall constitute grounds for an investigation. After a hearing held in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 of the general statutes, the commissioner may suspend or revoke such license for good cause or suspend operations at such facility and impose a civil penalty of not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars. Any licensee whose license is suspended or revoked or who is fined, any facility whose sports wagering in person operations are suspended or that is fined, or any applicant aggrieved by the action of the commissioner concerning an application for a license or renewal application, may appeal in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 of the general statutes.

Sec. 4. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2019) (a) No person may conduct sports wagering on a platform unless the person is an operator eligible to conduct sports wagering on a platform and such operator has obtained a license pursuant to this section.

(b) (1) A limited liability company operating a casino gaming facility that offers sports wagering and the Connecticut Lottery Corporation may submit an application for a license pursuant to this section. Such application may require the submission of information listed in subdivisions (2) to (7), inclusive, of subsection (d) of this section, and any information the commissioner deems pertinent to the issuance of such license. Such license shall expire biennially on the anniversary date of the issuance of such license unless renewed in accordance with subsection (j) of this section.

(2) Each applicant, except the Connecticut Lottery Corporation, shall submit to state and national criminal history records checks, conducted in accordance with section 29-17a of the general statutes, and submit a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred thousand dollars, before such license is issued. Upon the issuance or renewal of a license, the licensee, except the Connecticut Lottery Corporation, shall pay a licensing fee of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars to the commissioner.

(c) Not later than sixty days after the conditions specified in section 2 of this act have been met, the commissioner shall develop and issue a request for proposals to qualify individuals or businesses for up to three additional licenses to develop, manage, operate and maintain sports wagering on a platform in this state.

(d) The request for proposals shall require a responder to:

(1) Specify the amount the responder is willing to pay to obtain a license, which shall be no less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars;

(2) Specify the number of employees and physical office locations the respondent has or will have in this state to ensure the proper operation of sports wagering on a platform;

(3) Describe the electronic sports wagering platform to be used;

(4) Describe the types and numbers of sporting events the responder will offer for sports wagering in this state;

(5) Provide a market analysis detailing the impact on and benefits to the state if the responder receives a license, including projected revenue to the state;

(6) Provide information and documentation to demonstrate that the responder has sufficient business ability, experience and financial stability to develop, manage, operate and maintain sports wagering on an electronic platform in this state;

(7) Describe the methods used to ensure the integrity of the platform and security controls to be used regarding the (A) sports data acquired to determine the results of sports wagers, (B) sports bettor data, and (C) sports bettor verification of age and presence in the state;

(8) Provide a responsible gaming plan associated with the operation of sports wagering; and

(9) Provide any other information the commissioner deems necessary to evaluate the qualifications of the responder.

(e) Each proposal shall be submitted not later than thirty days after the date the commissioner issues the request for proposals pursuant to subsection (c) of this section. Each proposal shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred thousand dollars, which shall be refundable if the responder is (1) not selected by the commissioner to receive a license, and (2) waives the right to challenge the commissioner's decision.

(f) The commissioner shall develop selection criteria and a scoring method to evaluate responses to the request for proposals. Of those deemed qualified under the selection criteria and scoring method, the commissioner shall rank the responders based on the licensing fee each offered to pay in the responder's proposal, from highest to lowest. The commissioner shall issue a license to the qualified responder who offered to pay the highest licensing fee. The licensing fee paid by the first qualified responder accepting a license from the commissioner shall establish the licensing fee that the commissioner shall offer to additional qualified responders. The commissioner shall issue additional licenses using the ranked list of qualified responders, issuing the first such license to the highest ranked responder and proceeding through the list, from highest to lowest, until the commissioner has issued not more than two additional licenses. The commissioner shall not issue more than three licenses under this process and shall not issue a license for a fee of less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(g) A license issued pursuant to subsection (f) of this section shall expire two years after issuance, but the commissioner may extend a license for an additional two years upon renegotiation of the fee established through the process described under subsection (d) of this section.

(h) The commissioner may initiate additional requests for proposals to issue licenses pursuant to this section if the commissioner does not issue three licenses pursuant to subsection (e) of this section or a license expires pursuant to subsection (g) of this section. If the commissioner does not issue or renew a license to a limited liability company operating a casino gaming facility that offers sports wagering or the Connecticut Lottery Corporation, the commissioner may initiate a request for proposal to issue a license in place of the license or licenses not issued.

(i) (1) No person or business organization may develop an electronic sports wagering platform on behalf of a licensed operator eligible to conduct sports wagering on a platform unless such person or business organization holds a sports wagering vendor license issued by the commissioner pursuant to this subsection.

(2) Each applicant for a sports wagering vendor license shall submit with its application a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred thousand dollars. Except as provided in subsection (j) of this section, each such license shall expire biennially on the anniversary date of the issuance of such license unless renewed in accordance with this section. The nonrefundable application fee for such renewal shall be one hundred thousand dollars. Upon the issuance or renewal of a license, the licensee shall pay a licensing fee of three hundred thousand dollars to the commissioner.

(3) Applications for renewal of any such license shall be on such form as prescribed by the commissioner.

(j) (1) The commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt of a completed license or renewal application, grant or deny the license or renewal application. Any holder of a license issued pursuant to this section who submits an application to renew such license prior to the expiration of such license may continue to perform the activities authorized by such license until the commissioner approves or denies such renewal application.

(2) Failure by any operator eligible to conduct sports wagering on a platform that holds a license pursuant to this section to comply with the provisions of this section and any regulations adopted pursuant to section 5 of this act shall constitute grounds for the commissioner to investigate such licensee. A violation of the provisions of section 3 of this act by an operator eligible to conduct sports wagering on a platform that is licensed pursuant to section 3 of this act and this act shall constitute grounds for an investigation. After a hearing held in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 of the general statutes, the commissioner may suspend or revoke such license for good cause and impose a civil penalty of not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars. Any licensee whose license is suspended or revoked or who is fined or any applicant aggrieved by the action of the commissioner concerning an application for a license or renewal application, may appeal in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 of the general statutes.

Sec. 5. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2019) (a) Each licensed sports wagering operator shall:

(1) Verify that a sports bettor is at least twenty-one years of age;

(2) Allow any individual to exclude himself or herself from placing sports wagers or limit the amount of money such individual may use to place sports wagers with an operator, and, on and after the date the operator is notified by such individual of such exclusion or limit, shall take reasonable steps to prevent such individual from placing sports wagers or exceeding such limit, as the case may be;

(3) Enter into an agreement with a provider of sporting event data that meets or exceeds the minimum qualifications set forth in regulations adopted by the commissioner pursuant to subsection (i) of this section;

(4) Report any suspicion of abnormal betting activity to the commissioner for immediate investigation by the commissioner;

(5) Maintain the security of wagering data, sports bettor data and other confidential information to prevent unauthorized access to and dissemination of such data and information; and

(6) Share records in real time, at the account level and in pseudonymous form, to the department with respect to sports wagers placed with such operator.

(b) (1) No individual who is a licensed sports wagering operator or sports wagering vendor, an officer, director, owner or employee of a sports wagering operator or sports wagering vendor, and no family member of such individual who resides in the same household as such individual, shall place any wager with a licensed sports wagering operator.

(2) No athlete, coach, referee, team owner, employee of a sports governing body, employee of a sports governing body's member teams, or personnel of any bargaining unit of a sports governing body's athletes or referees, shall place any wager on any sporting event overseen by such governing body. In determining which individuals are prohibited from placing a wager under this subdivision, a licensed sports wagering operator shall use publicly available information and any lists provided by the relevant sports governing body to the commissioner.

(3) No individual with access to nonpublic, confidential information that could affect the outcome of a sporting event shall place any wager on such sporting event with any licensed sports wagering operator.

(4) No individual shall place any sports wager pursuant to this section as an agent or a proxy for another individual.

(5) Each licensed sports wagering operator shall take reasonable steps to prevent the conduct prohibited under subdivisions (1) to (4), inclusive, of this subsection and shall immediately notify the commissioner if such operator believes such conduct has occurred.

(6) A licensed sports wagering operator and a licensed sports wagering vendor shall not disclose or sell any sports bettor's information. Records that directly or indirectly identify a sports bettor shall be kept confidential and shall not be disclosed.

(7) No prizes shall be paid to any individual who is restricted from placing sports wagers pursuant to this subsection. Any such prize shall be deposited into the sports wagering account established in section 6 of this act.

(c) Except as provided in section 12-816 of the general statutes, as amended by this act, a tax is imposed on sports wagering gross revenue earned by a licensed sports wagering operator at the rate of ten per cent. The Commissioner of Revenue Services shall assess and collect such tax as the commissioner may prescribe by regulations adopted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 of the general statutes. The commissioner shall deposit the tax collected pursuant to this section in the sports wagering account established by section 6 of this act. Such tax shall be due and payable each Tuesday of the week. If any such tax is not paid when due, the commissioner shall impose a delinquency assessment upon the licensed sports wagering operator in the amount of ten per cent of such tax or ten dollars, whichever amount is greater, plus interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent of the unpaid principal of such tax for each month or fraction of a month from the date such tax is due to the date of payment. Subject to the provisions of section 12-3a of the general statutes, the commissioner may waive all or part of the penalties provided under this subsection when it is proven to the commissioner's satisfaction that the failure to pay such tax within the time required was due to reasonable cause and was not intentional or due to neglect. Failure to pay any such delinquent tax upon demand may be considered by the Commissioner of Consumer Protection as cause for revocation of a license to operate sports wagering.

(d) The amount of unclaimed moneys, as determined by the Commissioner of Consumer Protection, held by a licensed sports wagering operator on account of outstanding and uncashed winning sports wagering tickets, shall be due and payable to the commissioner at the expiration of six months after the date of the sporting event during which such tickets were issued. If any such unclaimed moneys are not paid when due, the commissioner shall impose a delinquency assessment upon the licensed sports wagering operator in the amount of ten per cent of such money or ten dollars, whichever amount is greater, plus interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent of the unpaid principal of such moneys for each month or fraction of a month from the date such moneys are due to the date of payment. Subject to the provisions of section 12-3a of the general statutes, the commissioner may waive all or part of the penalties provided under this subsection when it is proven to the commissioner’s satisfaction that the failure to pay such moneys within the time required was due to reasonable cause and was not intentional or due to neglect.

(e) The commissioner or the commissioner's designee may authorize deputies to enter upon the premises of a licensed sports wagering operator's place of business for the purposes of inspecting books and records, and supervising and examining cashiers, ticket sellers and other persons handling money on behalf of such operator.

(f) A sports governing body may request that the commissioner restrict, limit or exclude wagering on a sporting event or events by providing notice in such form and manner as the commissioner

(2) Such operator shall also immediately report to the relevant sports governing body any information relating to conduct described under subparagraphs (B) to (D), inclusive, of subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(h) If the commissioner finds, after a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 54 of the general statutes, that any individual or entity knowingly violated any provision of this section or any regulation adopted pursuant to subsection (i) of this section, the commissioner shall assess such individual or entity a civil penalty of not more than fifty thousand dollars for each violation, not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars for multiple violations arising out of the same transaction or occurrence.

(i) The commissioner shall adopt regulations, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 of the general statutes, to implement the provisions of sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this act. Sec. 6. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2019) (a) There is established an account to be known as the "sports wagering account" which shall be a separate, nonlapsing account within the General Fund. Any amounts received by the commissioner pursuant to sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this act shall be deposited in the sports wagering account. The account shall contain any other moneys required by law to be deposited in the account.

(b) Moneys in the account shall be expended by the commissioner for the purposes of compensating the department for the reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the department for the regulatory and licensing activities specified in sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act. On and after the first full fiscal year that the commissioner finds money has been deposited in the sports wagering account, the commissioner shall contribute two per cent of the moneys deposited in the account during the previous fiscal year to the program for treatment and rehabilitation of compulsive gamblers established pursuant to section 17a-713 of the general statutes. At the end of each fiscal year, the commissioner shall transfer any money in excess of such reasonable and necessary costs and such contribution to the General Fund.
(c) The commissioner may establish receivables for the expenses to be incurred by the department prior to moneys being deposited in the sports wagering account. Such receivables shall not exceed nine hundred thousand dollars.

Sec. 7. Section 12-577 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2019):

The commissioner shall annually cause to be made by some competent person or persons in the department a thorough audit of the books and records of each association licensee under this chapter, [and] each casino gaming facility and each licensed sports wagering operator, as defined in section 1 of this act, and the commissioner may, from time to time, cause to be made by some competent person in the department a thorough audit of the books and records of any other person or business organization licensed under this chapter. All such audit records shall be kept on file in the commissioner's office at all times. Each licensee and casino gaming facility shall permit access to its books and records for the purpose of having such audit made, and shall produce, upon written order of the commissioner, any documents and information required for such purpose.
