Absent were:

Senators:

Representatives:

Representative Johnson and Senator Miner welcomed members to the first meeting of 2019. Senator Miner referenced the training conducted prior to the committee meeting by LCO staff on the LRRC process and how the LRRC functions differently from other committees. He stated that the intention is to have politics taken out of the issues that will come before the committee, and that the committee rules reflect that.

Representative Johnson then asked committee members and staff (LCO, OLR, Committee Administrator) to introduce themselves.

Regarding subcommittee assignments, Representative Johnson stated that subcommittee assignments would be made for the February meeting. She informed members that the current assignments for the Department of Consumer Protection and the CT Insurance Department would be used to make the motions on the agenda items.
