I realize dems can't control spending in Connecticut, and feel compelled to tax the hell out of the blue collar hard working residents. Adding an insane tax for ammunition in an effort to stop people to exercise their second amendment right, only perpetuates the lack of common sense the dems cant comprehend. By increasing legal gun owners to practice their skill only hinders the process of being able and capable to safely defend themselves. Try cutting your spending instead off taxing.

Paul Ostrowski
Avon