I strongly oppose this tax because it is unfair to law biding citizens. To buy ammo in CT, one needs either in ammo card, or a pistol permit granted by the state. To obtain this, a background check is done. This means, the people buying ammo legally are not the criminals committing crimes with guns. A better solution would be to punish the criminals. Stop the plea bargaining if the gun charges, and send them to jail.

Cathy Swetz