RE: Testimony in support to S.B. 233: An Act Concerning Elections

My name is Claire Lee and I am currently a sophomore at Yale University. I want to voice my support for S.B. 233: An Act Concerning Elections. I believe people on parole in Connecticut should have the right to vote. All parolees should have the democratic right to vote but currently do not in Connecticut due to legislature. Connecticut is the only state in the Northeast that still does not allow parolees to vote, and it is time we make this change.
