

Testimony in support of SB 368

This seems simple. Incarcerated people are much more connected to the town or city they last lived in. Behind walls they have no contact with the town they are imprisoned in.

Charles Weedon
Pomfret CT