

Hello,

My name is Jessica Duran, I am a leader in a 200-member church at Jesus es el Camino Church located in Danbury, Ct. SB 274 is a bill that tries to go around Title X. The reason as I am sure you are all aware, that Planned Parenthood and similar "family planning" facilities lost federal money is because they "refer women for abortions". Should the state and the individual really be paying for these services? If the idea behind the bill that women should remain to have choice, then, where is my choice as a woman to not stipend abortion?

The book now turned movie, Unplanned tells the story of Abby Johnson who was the youngest clinic directors and won employee of the year award at Planned Parenthood. Her life changed the day she witnessed an ultrasound guided abortion. She saw how the baby sensing foreign object in the womb tried to move away to no prevail. The child was suctioned one limb at a time while the abortionist said, "beam me up Scottie". The truth is abortion is violent. A successful abortion always ends in the killing of a child.

As fine members of the committee I am sure that if thought on long enough the logical conclusion would be to use the millions of tax payers money to fund services for children in need to end their existing suffering.

Thank you,

Jessica Duran
