

Dear Committee,

I am opposed to tax-payers picking up the slack for an organization which voluntarily chose to reject $2 million in federal money.

The state of Connecticut is not the piggy bank of Planned Parenthood. It is irresponsible for the governor to so freely offer our money to make up for Planned Parenthood's poor financial decisions.

Tory Lamore
New Britain, Connecticut