

I just wanted to add my testimony as a birth mom. I was never ever promised any kind of anonymity about my daughter's birth in 1968. From all the years I have been active in adoption issues no one has ever found an official document that promises anonymity. All adults deserve to have their original birth certificates.

Betsey Holt