

To Whom it May Concern,

I fully support adoptees right to obtain their original birth certificate. This archaic law needs to change! Everyone should have the right to have their original birth certificates, especially adoptees who need their medical history and don't even have the names of their birth parents. Please consider changing the law!

Sincerely,

Jessica Leone

Easton, CT