

I am a birthmom who reunited with my son when he was 28. He is now 48 and it has been a healing experience for both of us. I believe that all adoptees deserve the possibility of knowing their medical and family heritage and if mutually agreeable, to know their first parents. The shame and guilt that usually followed upon 'unwed' motherhood should not exist in the modern world.

Do the right thing. Thank you,

Jo Ann Van Reenan

Oxnard, CA,

born in Connecticut.