Senator Maroney called the meeting to order. There were no comments from the chairs. Senator Maroney suggested that item number one be raised alone. A motion was made by Rep. Altobello and seconded by Rep. D'Agostino to raise concept number one. Senator Wikos stated that he will not be supporting the concept because it is not good for businesses. Rep. Cheeseman agrees and this concept would be a burden for businesses to give cash for gift cards. Rep. D'Agostino appreciates the concern but feels the bill does need a public hearing.

The final items on the agenda were motioned by Senator Witkos and seconded by Rep. Cheeseman.

Voting and attendance will be held open until 4:45p.m.

The next meeting will be a Public Hearing on February 25th at 1:30 in room 1D.
