sSB-954

AN ACT REQUIRING THE REPORTING OF INCIDENTS THAT RESULTED IN SERIOUS PHYSICAL INJURIES OR DEATH AT INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

As Amended by Senate "A" (LCO 7643)

Senate Calendar No.: 153

OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

The bill, which expands college and university crime reporting to include accidents on certain types of property that resulted in serious physical injury or death, results in no fiscal impact to the constituent units. The additional information can be tracked and reported with existing resources.

Senate "A" alters the original bill by: (1) specifying that reporting must include any accidents on housing-related international properties owned by or under the control of a college or university, in addition to domestic on-campus property, and (2) making technical changes. These changes result in no fiscal impact.

The Out Years

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact: None

The preceding Fiscal Impact statement is prepared for the benefit of the members of the General Assembly, solely for the purposes of information, summarization and explanation and does not represent the intent of the General Assembly or either chamber thereof for any purpose. In general, fiscal impacts are based upon a variety of informational sources, including the analyst's professional knowledge. Whenever applicable, agency data is consulted as part of the analysis, however final products do not necessarily reflect an assessment from any specific department.
