

I support a public option opening the State's public employee healthcare program to small business employees and unions. This is a common sense way to bring down the cost of healthcare coverage by enabling small groups of people to join a large group to spread the costs and risks among an even larger pool. What could possibly be the objection (besides special interests)? Please support this proposal.

Thank you.

Phyllis Behlen
Greenwich, CT 06830