

No to S.B. 842

The last thing Connecticut needs is another bureaucracy running another expensive and wasteful program. I was a 33 year State employee and I believe I have a grasp on what the State does efficiently and (mostly) what it does not. The only real way to reduce health care costs is to enable and encourage competition in the medical private sector. Nothing works like free enterprise and capitalism. Period.

Alton and Jill Blodgett
Lebanon