

I think you should focus on drug costs and do as little as possible else wise. CT is already in a financial pickle and I suspect this bill will just add to the costs that all of us collectively have to pay.

Paul Costeines
Fairfield