

NO to a state run health care program. Successes for state run anything are dismally few. Leave the health care to health care professionals and the insurance for it to the insurance professionals....which the state already regulates! Connecticut taxpayers need choices not government control.

Roselee Fanelli
Norfolk CT