

I love my state but I find the government to be reprehensible, inconsiderate, and most of all incompetent.

We are in the process of voting with our feet and moving to a more hospitable tax state. Between the welfare and unions, and egregious taxation, I can't imagine any of that will change. I suspect it collapse around them.

Wm F Fusco

"stay positive, test negative"