

CT is in poor financial shape. I am retired working part time to keep my head above water. CT is one of the most expensive states in which to live. Middle class retirees are bailing out of CT. Everything the state gets involved in loses money. You folks are looking for ways to squander money. The federal government offers medicaid and the ACA as alternatives to private insurance. Concentrate on improving the financial health of CT and reducing our damn taxes!!!

Mark C. Goldstein
Fairfield, CT