

No to S.B. 842

Based on the State's past history this has failure written all over it. Please do not burden even more with higher fees and taxes for this ill advised program. Figure out another way that meets the the same standards you subject insurance companies too. Not on the backs of us

George Millerd
Berlin, Connecticut