

I do not agree with government run healthcare. I am also displeased with government run DMV , as well as other government run programs. They only get more cumbersome with time. We need to keep the private sector involved with public needs. Government has too much waste and red tape.

Thank you for informing me about this subject and letting me speak out.

Russell Osborn
Southington CT.