

CT is known for its private Health Care for decades, there is no reason to change it now. There is good competition among the private sector which drives innovation, cost cutting and efficiencies. The Government is to help we the people when we the people agree and reach out, but not take over such an important private sector. Maybe enforce regulation if it seems the private sector is taking a path not beneficial to all.

Thank you,
Alfred Preci
Milford CT