

Hello,

The state is already struggling financially. No need to stretch us further and drive more out of state with higher taxes to cover the costs. I am against this and believe the insurance industry should stay private, not government run.

Regards,

Tom Ray

Brookfield, CT