

To Whom it may Concern:

Citizens do not want government run healthcare. Government cannot run anything efficiently and has proven that in the past. We need competition to bring about better care and competitive lower costs.

Thank you, Laura Stucki