

Please find something to do that would actually help your constituents. Rather than having the State run healthcare, why don't you have the state stop running the DMV? That would run much more efficiently if it was privatized. We need less government!

Shame on you for trying to find more ways to put people on the unemployment rolls.

Sent from my iPad