

As a faithful Christian I urge your unwavering support of SB 1019 to minimize the damage and harm surrounding past misdemeanors so that broken lives can be repaired, mended, restored to a level of personal dignity establishing a means to contribute to the well being of family members and to the community as a whole by enabling individuals to obtain employment, secure stability in their personal lives and serve as examples of renewed responsibility.

Thank you for supporting this most valuable, essential legislation.

Raymond Woollett

95 Beacon Street

Newington, CT 06111

rjwoollett@gmail.com

Sent from my iPhone