As an American citizen, I am respectfully asking that local governments be able to control the zoning of their towns. We live in the United States of America.

I do not want a "one size fits" solution from Hartford.

I love my country. I believe in the right to choose where you want to live without out being dictated to. This is cancel culture. It will ruin our towns. Let the towns decide about the housing. They are doing a fine job with providing housing for all.

Respectfully yours,
