

Reference: H.B. 6107,6611,6612,6613,1024,1026,1027

The towns across CT are diversified with different needs for management of zoning and the environment as defined by each town's plan of conservation and development. Centralized control would be a disaster for conservation and the environment for towns across the State.

Any politician, in either political party, that votes for this centralized control will never receive my vote.

Wayne Kilpatrick
Hampton, CT

Virus-free. www.avast.com