

OPPOSE BILLS HB6107 and SB1027

To whom it may concern,

I believe affordable housing is important. However, local governments should be able to control the zoning in their towns. I don't think that Hartford's "one size fits" solution would work. It should be up to us, our neighbors and local governments to determine the best way to solve local issues.

Sincerely,

Patte Nusbaum
Greenwich