AN ACT CONCERNING TRAVEL INSURANCE AND SUICIDE

SUMMARY: This act prohibits an insurance company from issuing a travel insurance policy in the state that excludes coverage because the insured person's dependent relative who resides in his or her household, spouse, child, or travelling companion dies by suicide. By law, travel insurance policies generally cover the interruption or cancellation of a trip or an event; loss of baggage or personal effects; damage to accommodations or rental vehicles; or sickness, accident, disability, or death occurring during travel.
