227 commissioner shall determine the form of bid invitation, the manner of, 228 and time for, submission of bids, and the conditions and requirements 229 of such bids. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible 230 and qualified bidder, subject to the provisions of sections 4b-92 and 4b-

430 one hundred per cent of the property taxes which would have been paid 431 with respect to any facility designated by the Commissioner of 432 Correction, on or before August first of each year, to be a correctional 433 facility administered under the auspices of the Department of 434 Correction or a juvenile [detention] residential center under direction of 435 the Court Support Services Division of the Judicial Branch that was used 436 for incarcerative purposes during the preceding fiscal year. If a list 437 containing the name and location of such designated facilities and 438 information concerning their use for purposes of incarceration during 439 the preceding fiscal year is not available from the Secretary of the State 440 on the first day of August of any year, said commissioner shall, on said 441 first day of August, certify to the Secretary of the Office of Policy and 442 Management a list containing such information, (B) one hundred per 443 cent of the property taxes which would have been paid with respect to 444 that portion of the John Dempsey Hospital located at The University of 445 Connecticut Health Center in Farmington that is used as a permanent 446 medical ward for prisoners under the custody of the Department of 447 Correction. Nothing in this section shall be construed as designating any 448 portion of The University of Connecticut Health Center John Dempsey 449 Hospital as a correctional facility, and (C) in the state fiscal year 450 commencing July 1, 2001, and each fiscal year thereafter, one hundred 451 per cent of the property taxes which would have been paid on any land 452 designated within the 1983 Settlement boundary and taken into trust by 453 the federal government for the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation on 454 or after June 8, 1999, (2) subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this 455 section, sixty-five per cent of the property taxes which would have been 456 paid with respect to the buildings and grounds comprising Connecticut 457 Valley Hospital and Whiting Forensic Hospital in Middletown. Such 458 grant shall commence with the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2000, and 459 continuing each year thereafter, (3) notwithstanding the provisions of 460 subsections (b) and (c) of this section, with respect to any town in which 461 more than fifty per cent of the property is state-owned real property,

462 one hundred per cent of the property taxes which would have been paid 463 with respect to such state-owned property. Such grant shall commence 464 with the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1997, and continuing each year 465 thereafter, (4) subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this section, 466 forty-five per cent of the property taxes which would have been paid 467 with respect to all other state-owned real property, (5) forty-five per cent 468 of the property taxes which would have been paid with respect to all 469 municipally owned airports or any airport owned by the Connecticut 470 Airport Authority, other than Bradley International Airport, except for 471 the exemption applicable to such property, on the assessment list in such 472 town for the assessment date two years prior to the commencement of 473 the state fiscal year in which such grant is payable. The grant provided

474 pursuant to this section for any municipally owned airport or any 475 airport owned by the Connecticut Airport Authority, other than Bradley 476 International Airport, shall be paid to any municipality in which the 477 airport is located, except that the grant applicable to Sikorsky Airport 478 shall be paid half to the town of Stratford and half to the city of 479 Bridgeport, and (6) forty-five per cent of the property taxes which would 480 have been paid with respect to any land designated within the 1983 481 Settlement boundary and taken into trust by the federal government for 482 the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation prior to June 8, 1999, or taken 483 into trust by the federal government for the Mohegan Tribe of Indians 484 of Connecticut, provided (A) the real property subject to this 485 subdivision shall be the land only, and shall not include the assessed 486 value of any structures, buildings or other improvements on such land, 487 and (B) said forty-five per cent grant shall be phased in as follows: (i) In 488 the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2012, an amount equal to ten per cent 489 of said forty-five per cent grant, (ii) in the fiscal year commencing July 490 1, 2013, thirty-five per cent of said forty-five per cent grant, (iii) in the 491 fiscal year commencing July 1, 2014, sixty per cent of said forty-five per 492 cent grant, (iv) in the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2015, eighty-five 493 per cent of said forty-five per cent grant, and (v) in the fiscal year 494 commencing July 1, 2016, one hundred per cent of said forty-five per 495 cent grant.

496 Sec. 11. Subsections (a) and (b) of section 17b-745 of the general
497 statutes are repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof
498 (Effective from passage):

499 (a) (1) The Superior Court or a family support magistrate may make 500 and enforce orders for payment of support to the Commissioner of 501 Administrative Services or, in IV-D support cases, to the state acting by 502 and through the IV-D agency, directed to the husband or wife and, if the 503 patient or person is under the age of eighteen years or as otherwise 504 provided in this subsection, to any parent of any patient or person being 505 supported by the state, wholly or in part, in a state humane institution, 506 or under any welfare program administered by the Department of Social 507 Services, as the court or family support magistrate finds, in accordance 508 with the provisions of subsection (b) of section 17b-179, or section 17a-509 90, 17b-81, 17b-223, 46b-129 or 46b-130, to be reasonably commensurate 510 with the financial ability of any such relative. If such person is 511 unmarried and a full-time high school student, such support shall 512 continue according to the parents' respective abilities, if such person is 513 in need of support, until such person completes the twelfth grade or 514 attains the age of nineteen, whichever occurs first. Any court or family 515 support magistrate called upon to make or enforce such an order, 516 including an order based upon a determination consented to by the 517 relative, shall ensure that such order is reasonable in light of the 518 relative's ability to pay.

519 (2) (A) The court or family support magistrate shall include in each 520 support order in a IV-D support case a provision for the health care 521 coverage of the child. Such provision may include an order for either 522 parent or both parents to provide such coverage under any or all of 523 clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of this subparagraph.

524 (i) The provision for health care coverage may include an order for 525 either parent to name any child as a beneficiary of any medical or dental 526 insurance or benefit plan carried by such parent or available to such 527 parent at a reasonable cost, as described in clause (iv) of this 528 subparagraph. If such order requires the parent to maintain insurance 529 available through an employer, the order shall be enforced using a
530 National Medical Support Notice as provided in section 46b-88.

531 (ii) The provision for health care coverage may include an order for 532 either parent to: (I) Apply for and maintain coverage on behalf of the 533 child under HUSKY B; or (II) provide cash medical support, as 534 described in clauses (v) and (vi) of this subparagraph. An order under 535 this clause shall be made only if the cost to the parent obligated to 536 maintain coverage under HUSKY B, or provide cash medical support is 537 reasonable as described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph. An order 538 under subclause (I) of this clause shall be made only if insurance 539 coverage as described in clause (i) of this subparagraph is unavailable 540 at reasonable cost to either parent, or inaccessible to the child.

541 (iii) An order for payment of the child's medical and dental expenses, 542 other than those described in subclause (II) of clause (v) of this 543 subparagraph, that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in any 544 other manner shall be entered in accordance with the child support 545 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a.

546 (iv) Health care coverage shall be deemed reasonable in cost if: (I) The 547 parent obligated to maintain such coverage would qualify as a low-548 income obligor under the child support guidelines established pursuant 549 to section 46b-215a, based solely on such parent's income, and the cost 550 does not exceed five per cent of such parent's net income; or (II) the 551 parent obligated to maintain such coverage would not qualify as a low-552 income obligor under such guidelines and the cost does not exceed 553 seven and one-half per cent of such parent's net income. In either case, 554 net income shall be determined in accordance with the child support
555 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a. If a parent 556 obligated to maintain insurance must obtain coverage for himself or 557 herself to comply with the order to provide coverage for the child, 558 reasonable cost shall be determined based on the combined cost of 559 coverage for such parent and such child.

560 (v) Cash medical support means: (I) An amount ordered to be paid 561 toward the cost of premiums for health insurance coverage provided by 562 a public entity, including HUSKY A or B, except as provided in clause 563 (vi) of this subparagraph, or by another parent through employment or 564 otherwise, or (II) an amount ordered to be paid, either directly to a 565 medical provider or to the person obligated to pay such provider, 566 toward any ongoing extraordinary medical and dental expenses of the 567 child that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in any other 568 manner, provided such expenses are documented and identified 569 specifically on the record, or in an affidavit, made under oath, that also 570 states that no restraining order issued pursuant to section 46b-15, as 571 amended by this act, or protective order issued pursuant to section 46b-572 38c, between the parties is in effect or pending before the court. Cash 573 medical support, as described in subclauses (I) and (II) of this clause, 574 may be ordered in lieu of an order under clause (i) of this subparagraph

575 to be effective until such time as health insurance that is accessible to the 576 child and reasonable in cost becomes available, or in addition to an 577 order under clause (i) of this subparagraph, provided the total cost to 578 the obligated parent of insurance and cash medical support is 579 reasonable, as described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph. An order 580 for cash medical support shall be payable to the state or the custodial 581 party, as their interests may appear, provided an order under subclause 582 (I) of this clause shall be effective only as long as health insurance 583 coverage is maintained. Any unreimbursed medical and dental 584 expenses not covered by an order issued pursuant to subclause (II) of 585 this clause are subject to an order for unreimbursed medical and dental 586 expenses pursuant to clause (iii) of this subparagraph.

587 (vi) Cash medical support to offset the cost of any insurance payable 588 under HUSKY A or B, shall not be ordered against a noncustodial parent 589 who is a low-income obligor, as defined in the child support guidelines 590 established pursuant to section 46b-215a, or against a custodial parent
591 of children covered under HUSKY A or B.

592 (B) Whenever an order of the Superior Court or family support 593 magistrate is issued against a parent to cover the cost of such medical or 594 dental insurance or benefit plan for a child who is eligible for Medicaid 595 benefits, and such parent has received payment from a third party for 596 the costs of such services but such parent has not used such payment to 597 reimburse, as appropriate, either the other parent or guardian or the 598 provider of such services, the Department of Social Services may request 599 the court or family support magistrate to order the employer of such 600 parent to withhold from the wages, salary or other employment income 601 of such parent to the extent necessary to reimburse the Department of 602 Social Services for expenditures for such costs under the Medicaid 603 program, except that any claims for current or past-due child support 604 shall take priority over any such claims for the costs of such services.

605 (3) Said court or family support magistrate shall also have authority 606 to make and enforce orders directed to the conservator or guardian of 607 any such patient or person, or the payee of Social Security or other

608 benefits to which such patient or person is entitled, to the extent of the 609 income or estate held or received by such fiduciary or payee in any such 610 capacity.

611 (4) For purposes of this section, the term "father" shall include a 612 person who has acknowledged in writing paternity of a child born out 613 of wedlock, and the court or family support magistrate shall have 614 authority to determine, order and enforce payment of any accumulated 615 sums due under a written agreement to support such child in 616 accordance with the provisions of this section.

617 (5) (A) The court or family support magistrate may also make and 618 enforce orders for the payment by any person named herein of past-due 619 support for which any such person is liable in accordance with the 620 provisions of section 17a-90 or 17b-81, subsection (b) of section 17b-179 621 or section 17b-223, 46b-129 or 46b-130 and, in IV-D cases, order such 622 person, provided such person is not incapacitated, to participate in work 623 activities that may include, but shall not be limited to, job search, 624 training, work experience and participation in the job training and 625 retraining program established by the Labor Commissioner pursuant to 626 section 31-3t. A parent's liability for past-due support of a child born out 627 of wedlock shall be limited to the three years next preceding the filing 628 of a petition pursuant to this section.

629 (B) In the determination of child support due based on neglect or 630 refusal to furnish support prior to the action, the support due for periods 631 of time prior to the action shall be based upon the obligor's ability to pay 632 during such prior periods, as determined in accordance with the child 633 support guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a. The state 634 shall disclose to the court any information in its possession concerning 635 current and past ability to pay. If no information is available to the court 636 concerning past ability to pay, the court may determine the support due 637 for periods of time prior to the action as if past ability to pay is equal to 638 current ability to pay, if current ability is known. If current ability to pay 639 is not known, the court shall determine the past ability to pay based on 640 the obligor's work history if known, or if not known, on the state

641 minimum wage that was in effect during such periods, provided only
642 actual earnings shall be used to determine ability to pay for past periods 643 during which the obligor was a full-time high school student or was 644 incarcerated, institutionalized or incapacitated.

645 (C) Any finding of support due for periods of time prior to an action 646 in which the obligor failed to appear shall be entered subject to 647 adjustment. Such adjustment may be made upon motion of any party,
648 and the state in IV-D cases shall make such motion if it obtains
649 information that would have substantially affected the court's 650 determination of past ability to pay if such information had been 651 available to the court. Motion for adjustment under this subparagraph 652 may be made not later than twelve months from the date upon which 653 the obligor receives notification of (i) the amount of such finding of 654 support due for periods of time prior to the action, and (ii) the right not 655 later than twelve months from the date of receipt of such notification to 656 present evidence as to such obligor's past ability to pay support for such 657 periods of time prior to the action. A copy of any support order entered, 658 subject to adjustment, that is provided to each party under subsection 659 (c) of this section shall state in plain language the basis for the court's 660 determination of past support, the right to request an adjustment and to 661 present information concerning the obligor's past ability to pay, and the 662 consequences of a failure to request such adjustment.

663 (6) (A) All payments ordered by the court or family support 664 magistrate under this section shall be made to the Commissioner of 665 Administrative Services or, in IV-D cases, to the state acting by and 666 through the IV-D agency, as the court or family support magistrate may 667 determine, for the period during which the supported person is 668 receiving assistance or care from the state, provided, in the case of 669 beneficiaries of any program of public assistance, upon the 670 discontinuance of such assistance, payments shall be distributed to the 671 beneficiary, beginning with the effective date of discontinuance, and 672 provided further that in IV-D support cases, all payments shall be 673 distributed as required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. Any 674 order of payment made under this section may, at any time after being 675 made, be set aside or altered by the court or a family support magistrate.

676 (B) In IV-D support cases, the IV-D agency or a support enforcement 677 agency under cooperative agreement with the IV-D agency may, upon 678 notice to the obligor and obligee, redirect payments for the support of 679 any child receiving child support enforcement services either to the state 680 of Connecticut or to the present custodial party, as their interests may 681 appear, provided neither the obligor nor the obligee objects in writing 682 within ten business days from the mailing date of such notice. Any such 683 notice shall be sent by first class mail to the most recent address of such 684 obligor and obligee, as recorded in the state case registry pursuant to 685 section 46b-218, and a copy of such notice shall be filed with the court 686 or family support magistrate if both the obligor and obligee fail to object 687 to the redirected payments within ten business days from the mailing 688 date of such notice.

689 (7) (A) Proceedings to obtain orders of support under this section 690 shall be commenced by the service on the liable person or persons of a 691 verified petition of the Commissioner of Administrative Services, the 692 Commissioner of Social Services or their designees. The verified petition 693 shall be filed by any of said commissioners or their designees in the 694 judicial district of the court or Family Support Magistrate Division in 695 which the patient, applicant, beneficiary, recipient or the defendant 696 resides. The judge or family support magistrate shall cause a summons, 697 signed by such judge or magistrate, by the clerk of said court, or by a 698 commissioner of the Superior Court to be issued, requiring such liable 699 person or persons to appear before the court or a family support 700 magistrate at a time and place as determined by the clerk but not more 701 than ninety days after the issuance of the summons to show cause, if 702 any, why the request for relief in such petition should not be granted.

703 (B) Service of process issued under this section may be made by a 704 state marshal, any proper officer or any investigator employed by the 705 Department of Social Services or by the Commissioner of 706 Administrative Services. The state marshal, proper officer or 707 investigator shall make due return of process to the court not less than 708 twenty-one days before the date assigned for hearing. Upon proof of the 709 service of the summons to appear before the court or a family support 710 magistrate, at the time and place named for hearing upon such petition, 711 the failure of the defendant to appear shall not prohibit the court or 712 family support magistrate from going forward with the hearing.

713 (8) Failure of any defendant to obey an order of the court or Family 714 Support Magistrate Division made under this section may be punished 715 as contempt of court. If the summons and order is signed by a 716 commissioner of the Superior Court, upon proof of service of the 717 summons to appear in court or before a family support magistrate and 718 upon the failure of the defendant to appear at the time and place named 719 for hearing upon the petition, request may be made by the petitioner to 720 the court or family support magistrate for an order that a capias
721 mittimus be issued. Except as otherwise provided, upon proof of the 722 service of the summons to appear in court or before a family support 723 magistrate at the time and place named for a hearing upon the failure of 724 the defendant to obey the court order as contempt of court, the court or 725 the family support magistrate may order a capias mittimus to be issued 726 and directed to a judicial marshal to the extent authorized pursuant to 727 section 46b-225, or any other proper officer to arrest such defendant and 728 bring such defendant before the Superior Court for the contempt 729 hearing. The costs of commitment of any person imprisoned for 730 contempt shall be paid by the state as in criminal cases. When any such 731 defendant is so found in contempt, the court or family support 732 magistrate may award to the petitioner a reasonable attorney's fee and 733 the fees of the officer serving the contempt citation, such sums to be paid 734 by the person found in contempt.

735 (9) In addition to or in lieu of contempt proceedings, the court or 736 family support magistrate, upon a finding that any person has failed to 737 obey any order made under this section, may issue an order directing 738 that an income withholding order issue against such amount of any debt 739 accruing by reason of personal services due and owing to such person 740 in accordance with section 52-362, as amended by this act, or against 741 such lesser amount of such excess as said court or family support

742 magistrate deems equitable, for payment of accrued and unpaid 743 amounts due under such order and all amounts which thereafter
744 become due under such order. On presentation of such income 745 withholding order by the officer to whom delivered for service to the 746 person or persons or corporation from whom such debt accruing by 747 reason of personal services is due and owing, or thereafter becomes due 748 and owing, to the person against whom such support order was issued, 749 such income withholding order shall be a lien and a continuing levy 750 upon such debt to the amount specified therein, which shall be 751 accumulated by the debtor and paid directly to the Commissioner of 752 Administrative Services or, in IV-D cases, to the state acting by and 753 through the IV-D agency, in accordance with section 52-362, as amended 754 by this act, until such income withholding order and expenses are fully 755 satisfied and paid, or until such income withholding order is modified.

756 (10) No entry fee, judgment fee or any other court fee shall be charged 757 by the court to either party in actions under this section.

758 (11) Written statements from employers as to property, insurance, 759 wages, indebtedness and other information obtained by the 760 Commissioner of Social Services, or the Commissioner of 761 Administrative Services under authority of section 17b-137, shall be 762 admissible in evidence in actions under this section.

763 (b) Except as provided in sections 46b-301 to 46b-425, inclusive, any 764 court or family support magistrate, called upon to enforce a support 765 order, shall insure that such order is reasonable in light of the obligor's
766 ability to pay. Except as provided in sections 46b-301 to 46b-425, 767 inclusive, any support order entered pursuant to this section, or any 768 support order from another jurisdiction subject to enforcement by the 769 state of Connecticut, may be modified by motion of the party seeking 770 such modification, including Support Enforcement Services in IV-D 771 support cases, as defined in subdivision (13) of subsection (b) of section 772 46b-231, upon a showing of a substantial change in the circumstances of 773 either party or upon a showing that the final order for child support 774 substantially deviates from the child support guidelines established

775 pursuant to section 46b-215a, unless there was a specific finding on the 776 record at a hearing, or in a written judgment, order or memorandum of 777 decision of the court, that the application of the guidelines would be 778 inequitable or inappropriate, provided the court or family support 779 magistrate finds that the obligor or the obligee and any other interested 780 party have received actual notice of the pendency of such motion and of 781 the time and place of the hearing on such motion. There shall be a 782 rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than fifteen per cent 783 from the child support guidelines is not substantial and any deviation 784 of fifteen per cent or more from the guidelines is substantial.
785 Modification may be made of such support order without regard to 786 whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991. In any 787 hearing to modify any support order from another jurisdiction the court 788 or the family support magistrate shall conduct the proceedings in 789 accordance with sections 46b-384 to 46b-393, inclusive. No such support 790 orders may be subject to retroactive modification except that the court 791 or family support magistrate may order modification with respect to 792 any period during which there is a pending motion for a modification 793 of an existing support order from the date of service of notice of such 794 pending motion upon the opposing party pursuant to section 52-50.

795 Sec. 12. Section 20-14h of the general statutes is repealed and the 796 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2022):

797 As used in sections 20-14h to 20-14j, inclusive, as amended by this act:

798 (1) "Administration" means the direct application of a medication by 799 means other than injection to the body of a person.

800 (2) "Day programs", "residential facilities" and "individual and family 801 support" include only those programs, facilities and support services 802 designated in the regulations adopted pursuant to section 20-14j, as 803 amended by this act.

804 (3) "Juvenile [detention] residential centers" include only those 805 centers operated under the jurisdiction of the Judicial Department.

806 (4) "Medication" means any medicinal preparation, and includes any 807 controlled substances specifically designated in the regulations or 808 policies adopted pursuant to section 20-14j, as amended by this act.

809 (5) "Trained person" means a person who has successfully completed 810 training prescribed by the regulations or policies adopted pursuant to 811 section 20-14j, as amended by this act.

812 Sec. 13. Section 20-14i of the general statutes is repealed and the 813 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2022):

814 Any provisions to the contrary notwithstanding, chapter 378 shall not 815 prohibit the administration of medication to persons (1) attending day 816 programs, residing in residential facilities or receiving individual and 817 family support, under the jurisdiction of the Departments of Children
818 and Families, Correction, Developmental Services and Mental Health 819 and Addiction Services, (2) being detained in juvenile [detention] 820 residential centers or residing in residential facilities dually licensed by 821 the Department of Children and Families and the Department of Public 822 Health, or (3) residing in substance abuse treatment facilities licensed by 823 the Department of Children and Families pursuant to section 17a-145 824 when such medication is administered by trained persons, pursuant to 825 the written order of a physician licensed under this chapter, a dentist 826 licensed under chapter 379, an advanced practice registered nurse 827 licensed to prescribe in accordance with section 20-94a or a physician 828 assistant licensed to prescribe in accordance with section 20-12d, 829 authorized to prescribe such medication. The provisions of this section 830 shall not apply to institutions, facilities or programs licensed pursuant 831 to chapter 368v.

832 Sec. 14. Subsection (b) of section 20-14j of the general statutes is 833 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 834 1, 2022):

835 (b) The Chief Court Administrator shall (1) establish ongoing training 836 programs for personnel who are to administer medications to detainees

895 Sec. 17. Section 46b-15 of the general statutes is repealed and the 896 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

897 (a) Any family or household member, as defined in section 46b-38a, 898 who has been subjected to a continuous threat of present physical pain 899 or physical injury, stalking or a pattern of threatening, including, but 900 not limited to, a pattern of threatening, as described in section 53a-62, 901 by another family or household member may make an application to the 902 Superior Court for relief under this section. The court shall provide any 903 person who applies for relief under this section with the information set 904 forth in section 46b-15b.

905 (b) The application form shall allow the applicant, at the applicant's 906 option, to indicate whether the respondent holds a permit to carry a 907 pistol or revolver, an eligibility certificate for a pistol or revolver, a long 908 gun eligibility certificate or an ammunition certificate or possesses one 909 or more firearms or ammunition. The application shall be accompanied 910 by [an affidavit made under oath which includes a brief] a statement of 911 the conditions from which relief is sought made under penalty of false 912 statement pursuant to section 53a-157b. Upon receipt of the application 913 the court shall order that a hearing on the application be held not later 914 than fourteen days from the date of the order except that, if the 915 application indicates that the respondent holds a permit to carry a pistol 916 or revolver, an eligibility certificate for a pistol or revolver, a long gun 917 eligibility certificate or an ammunition certificate or possesses one or 918 more firearms or ammunition, and the court orders an ex parte order, 919 the court shall order that a hearing be held on the application not later 920 than seven days from the date on which the ex parte order is issued. The 921 court, in its discretion, may make such orders as it deems appropriate 922 for the protection of the applicant and such dependent children or other 923 persons as the court sees fit. In making such orders ex parte, the court, 924 in its discretion, may consider relevant court records if the records are 925 available to the public from a clerk of the Superior Court or on the 926 Judicial Branch's Internet web site. In addition, at the time of the 927 hearing, the court, in its discretion, may also consider a report prepared 928 by the family services unit of the Judicial Branch that may include, as 929 available: Any existing or prior orders of protection obtained from the 930 protection order registry; information on any pending criminal case or 931 past criminal case in which the respondent was convicted of a violent 932 crime; any outstanding arrest warrant for the respondent; and the 933 respondent's level of risk based on a risk assessment tool utilized by the 934 Court Support Services Division. The report may also include 935 information pertaining to any pending or disposed family matters case 936 involving the applicant and respondent. Any report provided by the 937 Court Support Services Division to the court shall also be provided to 938 the applicant and respondent. Such orders may include temporary child 939 custody or visitation rights, and such relief may include, but is not 940 limited to, an order enjoining the respondent from (1) imposing any 941 restraint upon the person or liberty of the applicant; (2) threatening, 942 harassing, assaulting, molesting, sexually assaulting or attacking the 943 applicant; or (3) entering the family dwelling or the dwelling of the 944 applicant. Such order may include provisions necessary to protect any 945 animal owned or kept by the applicant including, but not limited to, an 946 order enjoining the respondent from injuring or threatening to injure 947 such animal. If an applicant alleges an immediate and present physical 948 danger to the applicant, the court may issue an ex parte order granting 949 such relief as it deems appropriate. If a postponement of a hearing on 950 the application is requested by either party and granted, the ex parte 951 order shall not be continued except upon agreement of the parties or by 952 order of the court for good cause shown. If a hearing on the application 953 is scheduled or an ex parte order is granted and the court is closed on 954 the scheduled hearing date, the hearing shall be held on the next day the 955 court is open and any such ex parte order shall remain in effect until the 956 date of such hearing. If the applicant is under eighteen years of age, a 957 parent, guardian or responsible adult who brings the application as next 958 friend of the applicant may not speak on the applicant's behalf at such 959 hearing unless there is good cause shown as to why the applicant is 960 unable to speak on his or her own behalf, except that nothing in this 961 subsection shall preclude such parent, guardian or responsible adult 962 from testifying as a witness at such hearing. As used in this subsection, 963 "violent crime" includes: (A) An incident resulting in physical harm, 964 bodily injury or assault; (B) an act of threatened violence that constitutes 965 fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury or assault, including, but 966 not limited to, stalking or a pattern of threatening; (C) verbal abuse or 967 argument if there is a present danger and likelihood that physical 968 violence will occur; and (D) cruelty to animals as set forth in section 53-969 247.

970 (c) If the court issues an ex parte order pursuant to subsection (b) of 971 this section and service has not been made on the respondent in 972 conformance with subsection (h) of this section, upon request of the 973 applicant, the court shall, based on the information contained in the 974 original application, extend any ex parte order for an additional period 975 not to exceed fourteen days from the originally scheduled hearing date.

976 The clerk shall prepare a new order of hearing and notice containing the 977 new hearing date, which shall be served upon the respondent in 978 accordance with the provisions of subsection (h) of this section.

979 (d) Any ex parte restraining order entered under subsection (b) of this 980 section in which the applicant and respondent are spouses, or persons 981 who have a dependent child or children in common and who live 982 together, may include, if no order exists, and if necessary to maintain 983 the safety and basic needs of the applicant or the dependent child or 984 children in common of the applicant and respondent, in addition to any 985 orders authorized under subsection (b) of this section, any of the 986 following: (1) An order prohibiting the respondent from (A) taking any 987 action that could result in the termination of any necessary utility 988 services or necessary services related to the family dwelling or the 989 dwelling of the applicant, (B) taking any action that could result in the 990 cancellation, change of coverage or change of beneficiary of any health, 991 automobile or homeowners insurance policy to the detriment of the 992 applicant or the dependent child or children in common of the applicant 993 and respondent, or (C) transferring, encumbering, concealing or 994 disposing of specified property owned or leased by the applicant; or (2) 995 an order providing the applicant with temporary possession of an 996 automobile, checkbook, documentation of health, automobile or 997 homeowners insurance, a document needed for purposes of proving 998 identity, a key or other necessary specified personal effects.

999 (e) At the hearing on any application under this section, if the court 1000 grants relief pursuant to subsection (b) of this section and the applicant 1001 and respondent are spouses, or persons who have a dependent child or 1002 children in common and who live together, and if necessary to maintain 1003 the safety and basic needs of the applicant or the dependent child or 1004 children in common of the applicant and respondent, any orders 1005 entered by the court may include, in addition to the orders authorized

1006 under subsection (b) of this section, any of the following: (1) An order 1007 prohibiting the respondent from (A) taking any action that could result 1008 in the termination of any necessary utility services or services related to 1009 the family dwelling or the dwelling of the applicant, (B) taking any 1010 action that could result in the cancellation, change of coverage or change 1011 of beneficiary of any health, automobile or homeowners insurance 1012 policy to the detriment of the applicant or the dependent child or 1013 children in common of the applicant and respondent, or (C) 1014 transferring, encumbering, concealing or disposing of specified 1015 property owned or leased by the applicant; (2) an order providing the 1016 applicant with temporary possession of an automobile, checkbook, 1017 documentation of health, automobile or homeowners insurance, a 1018 document needed for purposes of proving identity, a key or other 1019 necessary specified personal effects; or (3) an order that the respondent: 1020 (A) Make rent or mortgage payments on the family dwelling or the 1021 dwelling of the applicant and the dependent child or children in 1022 common of the applicant and respondent, (B) maintain utility services 1023 or other necessary services related to the family dwelling or the 1024 dwelling of the applicant and the dependent child or children in 1025 common of the applicant and respondent, (C) maintain all existing 1026 health, automobile or homeowners insurance coverage without change 1027 in coverage or beneficiary designation, or (D) provide financial support 1028 for the benefit of any dependent child or children in common of the 1029 applicant and the respondent, provided the respondent has a legal duty 1030 to support such child or children and the ability to pay. The court shall 1031 not enter any order of financial support without sufficient evidence as 1032 to the ability to pay, including, but not limited to, financial affidavits. If 1033 at the hearing no order is entered under this subsection or subsection 1034 (d) of this section, no such order may be entered thereafter pursuant to 1035 this section. Any order entered pursuant to this subsection shall not be 1036 subject to modification and shall expire one hundred twenty days after 1037 the date of issuance or upon issuance of a superseding order, whichever 1038 occurs first. Any amounts not paid or collected under this subsection or 1039 subsection (d) of this section may be preserved and collectible in an 1040 action for dissolution of marriage, custody, paternity or support.

1041 (f) Every order of the court made in accordance with this section shall 1042 contain the following language: (1) "This order may be extended by the 1043 court beyond one year. In accordance with section 53a-107 of the 1044 Connecticut general statutes, entering or remaining in a building or any 1045 other premises in violation of this order constitutes criminal trespass in 1046 the first degree. This is a criminal offense punishable by a term of 1047 imprisonment of not more than one year, a fine of not more than two 1048 thousand dollars or both."; and (2) "In accordance with section 53a-223b 1049 of the Connecticut general statutes, any violation of subparagraph (A) 1050 or (B) of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 53a-223b constitutes 1051 criminal violation of a restraining order which is punishable by a term 1052 of imprisonment of not more than five years, a fine of not more than five 1053 thousand dollars, or both. Additionally, any violation of subparagraph 1054 (C) or (D) of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 53a-223b 1055 constitutes criminal violation of a restraining order which is punishable 1056 by a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years, a fine of not more 1057 than ten thousand dollars, or both."

1058 (g) No order of the court shall exceed one year, except that an order 1059 may be extended by the court upon motion of the applicant for such 1060 additional time as the court deems necessary. If the respondent has not 1061 appeared upon the initial application, service of a motion to extend an 1062 order may be made by first-class mail directed to the respondent at the 1063 respondent's last-known address.

1064 (h) (1) The applicant shall cause notice of the hearing pursuant to 1065 subsection (b) of this section and a copy of the application and the 1066 applicant's [affidavit] statement of the specific facts that form the basis
1067 for relief made under penalty of false statement pursuant to section 53a-1068 157b and of any ex parte order issued pursuant to subsection (b) of this 1069 section to be served on the respondent not less than three days before 1070 the hearing. The cost of such service shall be paid for by the Judicial 1071 Branch.

1072 (2) When (A) an application indicates that a respondent holds a 1073 permit to carry a pistol or revolver, an eligibility certificate for a pistol

1074 or revolver, a long gun eligibility certificate or an ammunition certificate 1075 or possesses one or more firearms or ammunition, and (B) the court has 1076 issued an ex parte order pursuant to this section, the proper officer 1077 responsible for executing service shall, whenever possible, provide in-1078 hand service and, prior to serving such order, shall (i) provide notice to 1079 the law enforcement agency for the town in which the respondent will 1080 be served concerning when and where the service will take place, and 1081 (ii) send, or cause to be sent by facsimile or other means, a copy of the 1082 application, the applicant's [affidavit] statement of the specific facts that 1083 form the basis for relief made under penalty of false statement pursuant 1084 to section 53a-157b, the ex parte order and the notice of hearing to such 1085 law enforcement agency, and (iii) request that a police officer from the 1086 law enforcement agency for the town in which the respondent will be 1087 served be present when service is executed by the proper officer. Upon 1088 receiving a request from a proper officer under the provisions of this 1089 subdivision, the law enforcement agency for the town in which the 1090 respondent will be served may designate a police officer to be present 1091 when service is executed by the proper officer.

1092 (3) Upon the granting of an ex parte order, the clerk of the court shall 1093 provide two copies of the order to the applicant. Upon the granting of 1094 an order after notice and hearing, the clerk of the court shall provide 1095 two copies of the order to the applicant and a copy to the respondent.
1096 Every order of the court made in accordance with this section after 1097 notice and hearing shall be accompanied by a notification that is 1098 consistent with the full faith and credit provisions set forth in 18 USC 1099 2265(a), as amended from time to time. Immediately after making 1100 service on the respondent, the proper officer shall (A) send or cause to 1101 be sent, by facsimile or other means, a copy of the application, or the 1102 information contained in such application, stating the date and time the 1103 respondent was served, to the law enforcement agency or agencies for 1104 the town in which the applicant resides, the town in which the applicant 1105 is employed and the town in which the respondent resides, and (B) as 1106 soon as possible, but not later than two hours after the time that service
1107 is executed, input into the Judicial Branch's Internet-based service

1108 tracking system the date, time and method of service. If, prior to the date
1109 of the scheduled hearing, service has not been executed, the proper 1110 officer shall input into such service tracking system that service was 1111 unsuccessful. The clerk of the court shall send, by facsimile or other 1112 means, a copy of any ex parte order and of any order after notice and 1113 hearing, or the information contained in any such order, to the law 1114 enforcement agency or agencies for the town in which the applicant 1115 resides, the town in which the applicant is employed and the town in 1116 which the respondent resides, within forty-eight hours of the issuance 1117 of such order. If the victim, or victim's minor child protected by such 1118 order, is enrolled in a public or private elementary or secondary school, 1119 including a technical education and career school, or an institution of 1120 higher education, as defined in section 10a-55, the clerk of the court 1121 shall, upon the request of the victim, send, by facsimile or other means, 1122 a copy of such ex parte order or of any order after notice and hearing, or 1123 the information contained in any such order, to such school or 1124 institution of higher education, the president of any institution of higher 1125 education at which the victim, or victim's minor child protected by such 1126 order, is enrolled and the special police force established pursuant to 1127 section 10a-156b, if any, at the institution of higher education at which 1128 the victim, or victim's minor child protected by such order, is enrolled, 1129 if the victim provides the clerk with the name and address of such school 1130 or institution of higher education.

1131 (i) A caretaker who is providing shelter in his or her residence to a 1132 person sixty years or older shall not be enjoined from the full use and 1133 enjoyment of his or her home and property. The Superior Court may 1134 make any other appropriate order under the provisions of this section.

1135 (j) When a motion for contempt is filed for violation of a restraining 1136 order, there shall be an expedited hearing. Such hearing shall be held 1137 within five court days of service of the motion on the respondent, 1138 provided service on the respondent is made not less than twenty-four 1139 hours before the hearing. If the court finds the respondent in contempt 1140 for violation of an order, the court may impose such sanctions as the 1141 court deems appropriate.

1142 (k) An action under this section shall not preclude the applicant from 1143 seeking any other civil or criminal relief.

1144 (l) For purposes of this section, "police officer" means a state police 1145 officer or a sworn member of a municipal police department and "law 1146 enforcement agency" means the Division of State Police within the 1147 Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection or any 1148 municipal police department.

1149 Sec. 18. Section 46b-16a of the general statutes is repealed and the 1150 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

1151 (a) Any person who has been the victim of sexual abuse, sexual 1152 assault or stalking may make an application to the Superior Court for 1153 relief under this section, provided such person has not obtained any 1154 other court order of protection arising out of such abuse, assault or 1155 stalking and does not qualify to seek relief under section 46b-15, as 1156 amended by this act. As used in this section, "stalking" means two or 1157 more wilful acts, performed in a threatening, predatory or disturbing 1158 manner of: Harassing, following, lying in wait for, surveilling, 1159 monitoring or sending unwanted gifts or messages to another person 1160 directly, indirectly or through a third person, by any method, device or 1161 other means, that causes such person to reasonably fear for his or her 1162 physical safety.

1163 (b) The application shall be accompanied by [an affidavit made by the 1164 applicant under oath that includes] a statement of the specific facts that 1165 form the basis for relief made under penalty of false statement pursuant 1166 to section 53a-157b. If the applicant attests that disclosure of the 1167 applicant's location information would jeopardize the health, safety or 1168 liberty of the applicant or the applicant's children, the applicant may 1169 request, on a form prescribed by the Chief Court Administrator, that his 1170 or her location information not be disclosed. Upon receipt of the 1171 application, if the allegations set forth in the [affidavit] statement of the 1172 specific facts that form the basis for relief made under penalty of false 1173 statement pursuant to section 53a-157b meet the requirements of 1174 subsection (a) of this section, the court shall schedule a hearing not later 1175 than fourteen days from the date of the application. If a postponement 1176 of a hearing on the application is requested by either party, no ex parte 1177 order shall be continued except upon agreement of the parties or by 1178 order of the court for good cause shown. If the court is closed on the 1179 scheduled hearing date, the hearing shall be held on the next day the 1180 court is open and any ex parte order that was issued shall remain in 1181 effect until the date of such hearing. If the applicant is under eighteen 1182 years of age, a parent, guardian or responsible adult who brings the 1183 application as next friend of the applicant may not speak on the 1184 applicant's behalf at such hearing unless there is good cause shown as 1185 to why the applicant is unable to speak on his or her own behalf, except 1186 that nothing in this subsection shall preclude such parent, guardian or 1187 responsible adult from testifying as a witness at such hearing. If the 1188 court finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the 1189 respondent has committed acts constituting grounds for issuance of an 1190 order under this section and will continue to commit such acts or acts 1191 designed to intimidate or retaliate against the applicant, the court, in its 1192 discretion, may make such orders as it deems appropriate for the 1193 protection of the applicant. If the court finds that there are reasonable 1194 grounds to believe that an imminent danger exists to the applicant, the 1195 court may issue an ex parte order granting such relief as it deems 1196 appropriate. In making such orders, the court, in its discretion, may 1197 consider relevant court records if the records are available to the public 1198 from a clerk of the Superior Court or on the Judicial Branch's Internet 1199 web site. Such orders may include, but are not limited to, an order 1200 enjoining the respondent from: (1) Imposing any restraint upon the 1201 person or liberty of the applicant; (2) threatening, harassing, assaulting, 1202 molesting, sexually assaulting or attacking the applicant; and (3) 1203 entering the dwelling of the applicant.

1204 (c) No order of the court shall exceed one year, except that an order 1205 may be extended by the court upon proper motion of the applicant, 1206 provided a copy of the motion has been served by a proper officer on 1207 the respondent, no other order of protection based on the same facts and 1208 circumstances is in place and the need for protection, consistent with 1209 subsection (a) of this section, still exists.

1210 (d) The applicant shall cause notice of the hearing pursuant to 1211 subsection (b) of this section and a copy of the application and the
1213 for relief made under penalty of false statement pursuant to section 53a-
1214 157b and of any ex parte order issued pursuant to subsection (b) of this 1215 section to be served by a proper officer on the respondent not less than 1216 five days before the hearing. The cost of such service shall be paid for 1217 by the Judicial Branch. Upon the granting of an ex parte order, the clerk 1218 of the court shall provide two copies of the order to the applicant. Upon 1219 the granting of an order after notice and hearing, the clerk of the court 1220 shall provide two copies of the order to the applicant and a copy to the 1221 respondent. Every order of the court made in accordance with this 1222 section after notice and hearing shall be accompanied by a notification 1223 that is consistent with the full faith and credit provisions set forth in 18 1224 USC 2265(a), as amended from time to time. Immediately after making 1225 service on the respondent, the proper officer shall (1) send or cause to 1226 be sent, by facsimile or other means, a copy of the application, or the 1227 information contained in such application, stating the date and time the 1228 respondent was served, to the law enforcement agency or agencies for 1229 the town in which the applicant resides, the town in which the applicant 1230 is employed and the town in which the respondent resides, and (2) as
1232 is executed, input into the Judicial Branch's Internet-based service
1233 tracking system the date, time and method of service. If, prior to the date
1234 of the scheduled hearing, service has not been executed, the proper
1236 unsuccessful. The clerk of the court shall send, by facsimile or other 1237 means, a copy of any ex parte order and of any order after notice and 1238 hearing, or the information contained in any such order, to the law
1239 enforcement agency or agencies for the town in which the applicant
1240 resides, the town in which the applicant is employed and the town in 1241 which the respondent resides, not later than forty-eight hours after the 1242 issuance of such order, and immediately to the Commissioner of 1243 Emergency Services and Public Protection. If the applicant is enrolled in 1244 a public or private elementary or secondary school, including a technical 1245 education and career school, or an institution of higher education, as 1246 defined in section 10a-55, the clerk of the court shall, upon the request 1247 of the applicant, send, by facsimile or other means, a copy of such ex 1248 parte order or of any order after notice and hearing, or the information 1249 contained in any such order, to such school or institution of higher 1250 education, the president of any institution of higher education at which 1251 the applicant is enrolled and the special police force established 1252 pursuant to section 10a-142, if any, at the institution of higher education 1253 at which the applicant is enrolled, if the applicant provides the clerk 1254 with the name and address of such school or institution of higher 1255 education.

1256 (e) If the court issues an ex parte order pursuant to subsection (b) of 1257 this section and service has not been made on the respondent in 1258 conformance with subsection (d) of this section, upon request of the 1259 applicant, the court shall, based on the information contained in the
1261 not to exceed fourteen days from the originally scheduled hearing date.
1262 The clerk of the court shall prepare a new order of hearing and notice 1263 containing the new hearing date, which shall be served upon the 1264 respondent in accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of this 1265 section.

1266 [(e)] (f) An action under this section shall not preclude the applicant 1267 from subsequently seeking any other civil or criminal relief based on the 1268 same facts and circumstances.

1270 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

1271 (a) In any action for dissolution of marriage or legal separation the 1272 court shall make a finding that a marriage breakdown has occurred 1273 where (1) the parties, and not their attorneys, execute a written

1274 stipulation that their marriage has broken down irretrievably, or (2) 1275 both parties are physically present in court and stipulate that their 1276 marriage has broken down irretrievably and have submitted an 1277 agreement concerning the custody, care, education, visitation, 1278 maintenance or support of their children, if any, and concerning 1279 alimony and the disposition of property. The testimony of either party 1280 in support of that conclusion, or an affidavit made under oath by either 1281 party, pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, shall be sufficient.

1282 (b) Any finding required to be made by the court pursuant to 1283 subsection (a) of this section, may be made on the basis of an affidavit, 1284 made under oath, by either party, provided that the party making the 1285 affidavit attests that no restraining order issued pursuant to section 46b-1286 15, as amended by this act, or protective order, issued pursuant to 1287 section 46b-38c, between the parties is in effect or pending before the 1288 court. Nothing in this subsection shall preclude the court from requiring 1289 that the parties attend a hearing and that findings be made on the 1290 record.

1291 [(b)] (c) In any case in which the court finds [, after hearing,] that a 1292 cause enumerated in subsection (c) of section 46b-40 exists, the court 1293 shall enter a decree dissolving the marriage or granting a legal 1294 separation. In entering the decree, the court may either set forth the 1295 cause of action on which the decree is based or dissolve the marriage or 1296 grant a legal separation on the basis of irretrievable breakdown. In no 1297 case shall the decree granted be in favor of either party.

1298 Sec. 20. Section 46b-56c of the general statutes is repealed and the 1299 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

1300 (a) For purposes of this section, an educational support order is an 1301 order entered by a court requiring a parent to provide support for a 1302 child or children to attend for up to a total of four full academic years 1303 an institution of higher education or a private occupational school for 1304 the purpose of attaining a bachelor's or other undergraduate degree, or 1305 other appropriate vocational instruction. An educational support order

1306 may be entered with respect to any child who has not attained twenty-1307 three years of age and shall terminate not later than the date on which 1308 the child attains twenty-three years of age.

1309 (b) (1) On motion or petition of a parent, the court may enter an 1310 educational support order at the time of entry of a decree of dissolution, 1311 legal separation or annulment, and no educational support order may 1312 be entered thereafter unless the decree explicitly provides that a motion 1313 or petition for an educational support order may be filed by either 1314 parent at a subsequent date. If no educational support order is entered 1315 at the time of entry of a decree of dissolution, legal separation or 1316 annulment, and the parents have a child who has not attained twenty-1317 three years of age, the court shall inform the parents that no educational 1318 support order may be entered thereafter. The court may accept a 1319 parent's waiver of the right to file a motion or petition for an educational 1320 support order upon a finding that the parent fully understands the 1321 consequences of such waiver.

1322 (2) A waiver of the right to file a motion or petition for an educational 1323 support order may be made in writing by either parent and accepted by 1324 the court, provided the parent making the writing attests, under oath, 1325 that the parent fully understands the consequences of such waiver, and 1326 that no restraining order issued pursuant to section 46b-15, as amended 1327 by this act, or protective order issued pursuant to section 46b-38c, 1328 between the parties is in effect or pending before the court. The 1329 provisions of this subdivision shall not preclude the court from 1330 requiring that the parties attend a hearing and that findings be made on 1331 the record.

1332 [(2)] (3) On motion or petition of a parent, the court may enter an 1333 educational support order at the time of entry of an order for support 1334 pendente lite pursuant to section 46b-83.

1335 [(3)] (4) On motion or petition of a parent, the court may enter an 1336 educational support order at the time of entering an order of support 1337 pursuant to section 46b-61 or 46b-171, as amended by this act, or similar 1338 section of the general statutes, or at any time thereafter.

1340 educational support order at the time of entering an order pursuant to 1341 any other provision of the general statutes authorizing the court to make 1342 an order of support for a child, subject to the provisions of sections 46b-1343 301 to 46b-425, inclusive.

1344 (c) The court may not enter an educational support order pursuant to 1345 this section unless the court finds as a matter of fact that it is more likely 1346 than not that the parents would have provided support to the child for 1347 higher education or private occupational school if the family were 1348 intact. After making such finding, the court, in determining whether to 1349 enter an educational support order, shall consider all relevant 1350 circumstances, including: (1) The parents' income, assets and other 1351 obligations, including obligations to other dependents; (2) the child's 1352 need for support to attend an institution of higher education or private 1353 occupational school considering the child's assets and the child's ability 1354 to earn income; (3) the availability of financial aid from other sources, 1355 including grants and loans; (4) the reasonableness of the higher 1356 education to be funded considering the child's academic record and the 1357 financial resources available; (5) the child's preparation for, aptitude for 1358 and commitment to higher education; and (6) evidence, if any, of the 1359 institution of higher education or private occupational school the child 1360 would attend.

1361 (d) Any finding required to be made by the court, pursuant to this 1362 section may be made on the basis of an affidavit, made under oath, by 1363 either party, provided that the party making the affidavit attests that no 1364 restraining order issued pursuant to section 46b-15, as amended by this 1365 act, or protective order, issued pursuant to section 46b-38c, between the 1366 parties is in effect or pending before the court. Nothing in this 1367 subsection shall preclude the court from requiring that the parties 1368 attend a hearing and that findings be made on the record.

1369 ~~[(d)]~~ (e) At the appropriate time, both parents shall participate in, and 1370 agree upon, the decision as to which institution of higher education or 1371 private occupational school the child will attend. The court may make 1372 an order resolving the matter if the parents fail to reach an agreement.

1373 [(e)] (f) To qualify for payments due under an educational support 1374 order, the child must (1) enroll in an accredited institution of higher 1375 education or private occupational school, as defined in section 10a-22a, 1376 (2) actively pursue a course of study commensurate with the child's 1377 vocational goals that constitutes at least one-half the course load 1378 determined by that institution or school to constitute full-time 1379 enrollment, (3) maintain good academic standing in accordance with the 1380 rules of the institution or school, and (4) make available all academic 1381 records to both parents during the term of the order. The order shall be 1382 suspended after any academic period during which the child fails to 1383 comply with these conditions.

1384 [(f)] (g) The educational support order may include support for any 1385 necessary educational expense, including room, board, dues, tuition, 1386 fees, registration and application costs, but such expenses shall not be 1387 more than the amount charged by The University of Connecticut for a 1388 full-time in-state student at the time the child for whom educational 1389 support is being ordered matriculates, except this limit may be exceeded 1390 by agreement of the parents. An educational support order may also 1391 include the cost of books and medical insurance for such child.

1392 [(g)] (h) The court may direct that payments under an educational 1393 support order be made (1) to a parent to be forwarded to the institution 1394 of higher education or private occupational school, (2) directly to the 1395 institution or school, or (3) otherwise as the court determines to be 1396 appropriate.

1397 [(h)] (i) On motion or petition of a parent, an educational support 1398 order may be modified or enforced in the same manner as is provided 1399 by law for any support order.

1400 [(i)] (j) This section does not create a right of action by a child for 1401 parental support for higher education.

1402 [(j)] (k) An educational support order under this section does not 1403 include support for graduate or postgraduate education beyond a 1404 bachelor's degree.

1405 [(k)] (l) The provisions of this section shall apply only in cases when 1406 the initial order for parental support of the child is entered on or after 1407 October 1, 2002.

1408 Sec. 21. Subsection (b) of section 46b-65 of the general statutes is 1409 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 1410 passage):

1411 (b) If no declaration has been filed under subsection (a) of this section, 1412 then at any time after the entry of a decree of legal separation, either 1413 party may petition the superior court for the judicial district in which 1414 the decree was entered for a decree dissolving the marriage, [and the 1415 court shall] The court may enter the decree in the presence of the party 1416 seeking the dissolution or, if a party attests that no restraining order 1417 issued pursuant to section 46b-15, as amended by this act, or protective 1418 order issued pursuant to section 46b-38c, between the parties is in effect 1419 or pending before the court, the court may enter the decree without 1420 requiring the presence of either party.

1422 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

1423 (a) Except as provided in section 46b-44c, in any case under this 1424 chapter where the parties have submitted to the court a final agreement 1425 concerning the custody, care, education, visitation, maintenance or 1426 support of any of their children or concerning alimony or the disposition 1427 of property, the court shall inquire into the financial resources and 1428 actual needs of the [spouses] parties and their respective fitness to have 1429 physical custody of or rights of visitation with any minor child, in order 1430 to determine whether the agreement of the [spouses] parties is fair and 1431 equitable under all the circumstances.

1432 (b) The inquiry required pursuant to subsections (a) and (e) of this

1433 section may take place on the record at a hearing, or if each party attests
1435 by this act, or protective order, issued pursuant to section 46b-38c, 1436 between the parties is in effect or pending before the court, the court 1437 may accept an affidavit from each party, made under oath, stating that 1438 each party has the financial resources, is fit to have physical custody of 1439 or rights of visitation with any minor child, or other facts satisfying any 1440 requirement of the inquiry in question, in order to determine whether 1441 the agreement of the parties is fair and equitable under all the 1442 circumstances and to make any other findings required by this section.

1443 (c) If the court finds the agreement fair and equitable, it shall become 1444 part of the court file, and if the agreement is in writing, it shall be 1445 incorporated by reference into the order or decree of the court. If the 1446 court finds the agreement is not fair and equitable, it shall make such 1447 orders as to finances and custody as the circumstances require. If the 1448 agreement is in writing and provides for the care, education, 1449 maintenance or support of a child beyond the age of eighteen, it may 1450 also be incorporated or otherwise made a part of any such order and 1451 shall be enforceable to the same extent as any other provision of such 1452 order or decree, notwithstanding the provisions of section 1-1d.

1453 [(b)] (d) Agreements providing for the care, education, maintenance 1454 or support of a child beyond the age of eighteen entered into on or after 1455 July 1, 2001, shall be modifiable to the same extent as any other 1456 provision of any order or decree in accordance with section 46b-86, as 1457 amended by this act.

1458 [(c)] (e) The provisions of chapter 909 shall be applicable to any 1459 agreement to arbitrate in an action for dissolution of marriage under this 1460 chapter, provided [(1)] an arbitration pursuant to such agreement may 1461 proceed only after the court has made a thorough inquiry and is satisfied 1462 that [(A)] (1) each party entered into such agreement voluntarily and 1463 without coercion, and [(B)] (2) such agreement is fair and equitable 1464 under the circumstances, [, and (2) such agreement and an arbitration 1465 pursuant to such agreement shall not include issues related to child

1466 support, visitation and custody.] An arbitration award in such action 1467 shall be confirmed, modified or vacated in accordance with the 1468 provisions of chapter 909.

1469 Sec. 23. Subsection (f) of section 46b-84 of the general statutes is
1471 passage):

1472 (f) (1) After the granting of a decree annulling or dissolving the 1473 marriage or ordering a legal separation, and upon complaint or motion 1474 with order and summons made to the Superior Court by either parent 1475 or by the Commissioner of Administrative Services in any case arising 1476 under subsection (a) or (b) of this section, the court shall inquire into the 1477 child's need of maintenance and the respective abilities of the parents to 1478 supply maintenance. The court shall make and enforce the decree for 1479 the maintenance of the child as it considers just, and may direct security 1480 to be given therefor, including an order to either party to contract with 1481 a third party for periodic payments or payments contingent on a life to 1482 the other party. The court may order that a party obtain life insurance 1483 as such security unless such party proves, by a preponderance of the 1484 evidence, that such insurance is not available to such party, such party 1485 is unable to pay the cost of such insurance or such party is uninsurable.

1486 (2) The court shall include in each support order a provision for the 1487 health care coverage of the child who is subject to the provisions of 1488 subsection (a) or (b) of this section. Such provision may include an order 1489 for either parent or both parents to provide such coverage under any or 1490 all of subparagraphs (A), (B) or (C) of this subdivision.

1491 (A) The provision for health care coverage may include an order for 1492 either parent to name any child as a beneficiary of any medical or dental 1493 insurance or benefit plan carried by such parent or available to such 1494 parent at a reasonable cost, as described in subparagraph (D) of this 1495 subdivision. If such order in a IV-D support case requires the parent to 1496 maintain insurance available through an employer, the order shall be 1497 enforced using a National Medical Support Notice as provided in 1498 section 46b-88.

1499 (B) The provision for health care coverage may include an order for 1500 either parent to: (i) Apply for and maintain coverage on behalf of the 1501 child under HUSKY B; or (ii) provide cash medical support, as described 1502 in subparagraphs (E) and (F) of this subdivision. An order under this 1503 subparagraph shall be made only if the cost to the parent obligated to 1504 maintain the coverage under HUSKY B or provide cash medical support 1505 is reasonable, as described in subparagraph (D) of this subdivision. An 1506 order under clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be made only if 1507 insurance coverage as described in subparagraph (A) of this subdivision 1508 is unavailable at reasonable cost to either parent, or inaccessible to the 1509 child.

1510 (C) An order for payment of the child's medical and dental expenses, 1511 other than those described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (E) of this 1512 subdivision, that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in any 1513 other manner shall be entered in accordance with the child support 1514 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a.

1515 (D) Health care coverage shall be deemed reasonable in cost if: (i) The 1516 parent obligated to maintain such coverage would qualify as a low-1517 income obligor under the child support guidelines established pursuant
1519 does not exceed five per cent of such parent's net income; or (ii) the 1520 parent obligated to maintain such coverage would not qualify as a low-1521 income obligor under such guidelines and the cost does not exceed 1522 seven and one-half per cent of such parent's net income. In either case, 1523 net income shall be determined in accordance with the child support
1524 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a. If a parent 1525 obligated to maintain insurance must obtain coverage for himself or 1526 herself to comply with the order to provide coverage for the child,
1528 coverage for such parent and such child.

1529 (E) Cash medical support means: (i) An amount ordered to be paid

1530 toward the cost of premiums for health insurance coverage provided by 1531 a public entity, including HUSKY A or B, except as provided in 1532 subparagraph (F) of this subdivision, or by another parent through 1533 employment or otherwise, or (ii) an amount ordered to be paid, either 1534 directly to a medical provider or to the person obligated to pay such 1535 provider, toward any ongoing extraordinary medical and dental 1536 expenses of the child that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in 1537 any other manner, provided such expenses are documented and 1538 identified (I) specifically on the record, or (II) in an affidavit, made 1539 under oath, that states no restraining order issued pursuant to section 1540 46b-15, as amended by this act, or protective order issued pursuant to 1541 section 46b-38c, between the parties is in effect or pending before the 1542 court. Cash medical support, as described in clauses (i) and (ii) of this 1543 subparagraph may be ordered in lieu of an order under subparagraph 1544 (A) of this subdivision to be effective until such time as health insurance 1545 that is accessible to the child and reasonable in cost becomes available, 1546 or in addition to an order under subparagraph (A) of this subdivision, 1547 provided the combined cost of insurance and cash medical support is 1548 reasonable, as defined in subparagraph (D) of this subdivision. An order 1549 for cash medical support shall be payable to the state or the custodial 1550 party, as their interests may appear, provided an order under clause (i) 1551 of this subparagraph shall be effective only as long as health insurance 1552 coverage is maintained. Any unreimbursed medical and dental 1553 expenses not covered by an order issued pursuant to clause (ii) of this 1554 subparagraph are subject to an order for unreimbursed medical and 1555 dental expenses pursuant to subparagraph (C) of this subdivision.

1556 (F) Cash medical support to offset the cost of any insurance payable 1557 under HUSKY A or B, shall not be ordered against a noncustodial parent
 1558 who is a low-income obligor, as defined in the child support guidelines
 1559 established pursuant to section 46b-215a, or against a custodial parent
 1560 of children covered under HUSKY A or B.

1561 Sec. 24. Subsection (a) of section 46b-86 of the general statutes is
 1563 passage):

1564 (a) Unless and to the extent that the decree precludes modification, 1565 any final order for the periodic payment of permanent alimony or 1566 support, an order for alimony or support pendente lite or an order 1567 requiring either party to maintain life insurance for the other party or a 1568 minor child of the parties may, at any time thereafter, be continued, set 1569 aside, altered or modified by the court upon a showing of a substantial 1570 change in the circumstances of either party or upon a showing that the 1571 final order for child support substantially deviates from the child 1572 support guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a, unless 1573 there was a specific finding on the record at a hearing, or in a written 1574 judgment, order or memorandum of decision of the court, that the 1575 application of the guidelines would be inequitable or inappropriate.
1576 There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than 1577 fifteen per cent from the child support guidelines is not substantial and 1578 any deviation of fifteen per cent or more from the guidelines is 1579 substantial. Modification may be made of such support order without 1580 regard to whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991.
1581 In determining whether to modify a child support order based on a 1582 substantial deviation from such child support guidelines the court shall 1583 consider the division of real and personal property between the parties 1584 set forth in the final decree and the benefits accruing to the child as the 1585 result of such division. After the date of judgment, modification of any 1586 child support order issued before, on or after July 1, 1990, may be made 1587 upon a showing of such substantial change of circumstances, whether 1588 or not such change of circumstances was contemplated at the time of 1589 dissolution. By written agreement, stipulation or decision of the court, 1590 those items or circumstances that were contemplated and are not to be 1591 changed may be specified in the written agreement, stipulation or 1592 decision of the court. This section shall not apply to assignments under 1593 section 46b-81 or to any assignment of the estate or a portion thereof of 1594 one party to the other party under prior law. No order for periodic 1595 payment of permanent alimony or support may be subject to retroactive 1596 modification, except that the court may order modification with respect 1597 to any period during which there is a pending motion for modification 1598 of an alimony or support order from the date of service of notice of such 1599 pending motion upon the opposing party pursuant to section 52-50. If a 1600 court [, after hearing,] finds that a substantial change in circumstances 1601 of either party has occurred, the court shall determine what 1602 modification of alimony, if any, is appropriate, considering the criteria 1603 set forth in section 46b-82.

1605 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2022):

1606 The terms used in this chapter shall, in its interpretation and in the 1607 interpretation of other statutes, be defined as follows:

1608 (1) "Child" means any person under eighteen years of age who has 1609 not been legally emancipated, except that (A) for purposes of 1610 delinquency matters and proceedings, "child" means any person who (i) 1611 is at least seven years of age at the time of the alleged commission of a 1612 delinquent act and who is (I) under eighteen years of age and has not 1613 been legally emancipated, or (II) eighteen years of age or older and 1614 committed a delinquent act prior to attaining eighteen years of age, or 1615 (ii) is subsequent to attaining eighteen years of age, (I) violates any order 1616 of the Superior Court or any condition of probation ordered by the 1617 Superior Court with respect to a delinquency proceeding, or (II) wilfully 1618 fails to appear in response to a summons under section 46b-133, as 1619 amended by this act, or at any other court hearing in a delinquency 1620 proceeding of which the child had notice, and (B) for purposes of family 1621 with service needs matters and proceedings, child means a person who 1622 is at least seven years of age and is under eighteen years of age;

1623 (2) (A) A child may be adjudicated as "delinquent" who has, while 1624 under sixteen years of age, (i) violated any federal or state law, except 1937 Whenever a child is arrested and charged with a delinquent act, such 1938 child may be required to submit to the taking of his photograph, 1939 physical description and fingerprints. Notwithstanding the provisions 1940 of section 46b-124, as amended by this act, the name, photograph and

1956 release the child to the custody of the child's parent or parents, guardian 1957 or some other suitable person or agency, (2) at the discretion of the 1964 available, and (C) there is (i) probable cause to believe that the level of 1965 risk that the child poses to public safety if released to the community 1967 restrictive setting, (ii) a need to hold the child in order to ensure the 1968 child's appearance before the court or compliance with court process, as 1969 demonstrated by the child's previous failure to respond to the court 1970 process, or (iii) a need to hold the child for another jurisdiction. No child

1976 complaint and summons on the child and the child's parent, guardian 1977 or some other suitable person or agency. If such child is released to the 1978 child's own custody, the officer shall make reasonable efforts to notify, 1979 and to provide a copy of a written complaint and summons to, the 1980 parent or guardian or some other suitable person or agency prior to the 1981 court date on the summons. If any person so summoned wilfully fails to 1982 appear in court at the time and place so specified, the court may issue a 1983 warrant for the child's arrest or a causas to assure the appearance in 1984 court of such parent, guardian or other person. If a child wilfully fails to 1985 appear in response to such a summons, the court may order such child 1986 taken into custody and such child may be charged with the delinquent 1987 act of wilful failure to appear under section 46b-120, as amended by this 1988 act. The court may punish for contempt, as provided in section 46b-121, 1989 any parent, guardian or other person so summoned who wilfully fails 1990 to appear in court at the time and place so specified.

1991 (e) When a child is arrested for the commission of a delinquent act 1992 and is placed in [detention] a juvenile residential center pursuant to 1993 subsection (c) of this section, such child may be detained pending a 1994 hearing which shall be held on the business day next following the 1995 child's arrest. No child may be detained after such hearing unless the 1996 court determines, based on the available facts, that (1) there is probable 1997 cause to believe that the child has committed the acts alleged, (2) there 1998 is no less restrictive alternative available, and (3) through the use of the 1999 detention risk screening instrument developed pursuant to section 46b-2000 133g, that there is (A) probable cause to believe that the level of risk the 2001 child poses to public safety if released to the community prior to the 2002 court hearing or disposition cannot be managed in a less restrictive 2003 setting; (B) a need to hold the child in order to ensure the child's 2004 appearance before the court or compliance with court process, as 2005 demonstrated by the child's previous failure to respond to the court 2006 process, or (C) a need to hold the child for another jurisdiction. Such 2007 probable cause may be shown by sworn affidavit in lieu of testimony.

2008 No child shall be released from [detention] a juvenile residential center 2009 who is alleged to have committed a serious juvenile offense except by 2010 order of a judge of the Superior Court. The court may, in its discretion, 2011 consider as an alternative to detention a suspended detention order with 2012 graduated sanctions to be imposed based on the detention risk 2013 screening for such child, using the instrument developed pursuant to 2014 section 46b-133g. Any child confined in a community correctional center 2015 or lockup shall be held in an area separate and apart from any adult 2016 detainee, except in the case of a nursing infant, and no child shall at any 2017 time be held in solitary confinement or held for a period that exceeds six 2018 hours. When a female child is held in custody, she shall, as far as 2019 possible, be in the charge of a woman attendant.

2020 (f) The police officer who brings a child into detention shall have first 2021 notified, or made a reasonable effort to notify, the parents or guardian 2022 of the child in question of the intended action and shall file at the 2023 [detention] juvenile residential center a signed statement setting forth 2024 the alleged delinquent conduct of the child and the order to detain such 2025 child. Upon admission, the child shall be administered the detention 2026 risk screening instrument developed pursuant to section 46b-133g, and 2027 unless the child was arrested for a serious juvenile offense or unless an 2028 order not to release is noted on the take into custody order, arrest 2029 warrant or order to detain, the child may be released to the custody of 2030 the child's parent or parents, guardian or some other suitable person or 2031 agency in accordance with policies adopted by the Court Support 2032 Services Division of the Judicial Department pursuant to section 46b-2033 133h.

2034 (g) In conjunction with any order of release from detention, the court 2035 may, when it has reason to believe a child is alcohol-dependent or drug-2036 dependent as defined in section 46b-120, as amended by this act, and 2037 where necessary, reasonable and appropriate, order the child to 2038 participate in a program of periodic alcohol or drug testing and 2039 treatment as a condition of such release. The results of any such alcohol 2040 or drug test shall be admissible only for the purposes of enforcing the 2041 conditions of release from detention.

2042 (h) The detention supervisor of a juvenile [detention] residential 2043 center in charge of intake shall admit only a child who: (1) Is the subject 2044 of an order to detain or an outstanding court order to take such child 2045 into custody, (2) is ordered by a court to be held in detention, or (3) is 2046 being transferred to such center to await a court appearance.

2047 (i) Whenever a child is subject to a court order to take such child into 2048 custody, or other process issued pursuant to this section or section 46b-2049 140a, as amended by this act, the Judicial Branch may cause the order or 2050 process to be entered into a central computer system in accordance with 2051 policies and procedures established by the Chief Court Administrator.
2052 The existence of the order or process in the computer system shall 2053 constitute prima facie evidence of the issuance of the order or process.
2054 Any child named in the order or process may be arrested or taken into 2055 custody based on the existence of the order or process in the computer 2056 system and, if the order or process directs that such child be detained, 2057 the child shall be held in a juvenile [detention] residential center.

2058 (j) In the case of any child held in detention, the order to detain such 2059 child shall be for a period that does not exceed seven days or until the 2060 dispositional hearing is held, whichever is shorter, unless, following a 2061 detention review hearing, such order is renewed for a period that does 2062 not exceed seven days or until the dispositional hearing is held, 2063 whichever is shorter.

2064 (k) For purposes of subsections (c) and (e) of this section, a child may 2065 be determined to pose a risk to public safety if such child has previously 2066 been adjudicated as delinquent for or convicted of or pled guilty or nolo 2067 contendere to two or more felony offenses, has had two or more prior 2068 dispositions of probation and is charged with commission of a larceny 2069 under subdivision (3) of subsection (a) of section 53a-122 or subdivision 2070 (1) of subsection (a) of section 53a-123 or subdivision (1) of subsection 2071 (a) of section 53a-124.

2072 Sec. 32. Subsections (c) and (d) of section 46b-140a of the general
2073 statutes are repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof
2074 (Effective January 1, 2022):

2075 (c) At any time during the period of probation supervision or 2076 probation supervision with residential placement, the court may issue 2077 an order to take into custody or a warrant for the arrest of a child for 2078 violation of any of the conditions of probation supervision or probation 2079 supervision with residential placement, or may issue a notice to appear 2080 to answer to a charge of such violation, which notice shall be personally 2081 served upon the child. Any such order or warrant shall authorize all 2082 officers named therein to return the child to the custody of the court or 2083 to any suitable juvenile [detention facility] residential center designated 2084 by the court in accordance with subsection (e) of section 46b-133, as 2085 amended by this act.

2086 (d) At any time during the period of probation supervision or 2087 probation supervision with residential placement, notwithstanding the 2088 provisions of subsection (c) of section 46b-133, as amended by this act, 2089 the court, upon a finding of probable cause, may issue an order to detain

2090 any child who has absconded, escaped or run away from a residential 2091 facility in which such child has been placed by court order. Any such 2092 order to detain shall authorize all officers named in such order to return 2093 the child to any suitable juvenile [detention facility] residential center 2094 designated by the court. Such child shall be detained pending a hearing 2095 to be held on the next business day, which shall be held in accordance 2096 with the provisions of subsection (e) of section 46b-133, as amended by 2097 this act.

2098 Sec. 33. Section 46b-141d of the general statutes is repealed and the 2099 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2022):

2100 Any child who is arrested and held in a [detention] juvenile 2101 residential center, an alternative [detention] residential center or a police 2102 station or courthouse lockup prior to the disposition of a juvenile matter 2103 shall, if subsequently adjudicated as delinquent by the Superior Court 2104 and sentenced to a period of probation supervision or probation 2105 supervision with residential placement, earn a reduction of such child's 2106 period of probation supervision or probation supervision with 2107 residential placement, including any extensions thereof, equal to the 2108 number of days that such child spent in such [detention] residential 2109 center or lockup.

2110 Sec. 34. Subsection (a) of section 46b-148 of the general statutes is
2112 1, 2022):

2113 (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter: (1) No child who 2114 has been adjudicated as a child from a family with service needs in 2115 accordance with section 46b-149 may be processed or held in a juvenile 2116 [detention] residential center as a delinquent child, or be convicted as 2117 delinquent, solely for the violation of a valid order which regulates 2118 future conduct of the child that was issued by the court following such 2119 an adjudication; and (2) no such child who is found to be in violation of 2120 any such order may be punished for such violation by placement in any 2121 juvenile [detention] residential center.

2122 Sec. 35. Subsection (a) of section 46b-171 of the general statutes is
2124 passage):

2125 (a) (1) (A) If the defendant is found to be the father of the child, the 2126 court or family support magistrate shall order the defendant to stand 2127 charged with the support and maintenance of such child, with the 2128 assistance of the mother if such mother is financially able, as the court 2129 or family support magistrate finds, in accordance with the provisions of 2130 subsection (b) of section 17b-179, or section 17a-90, 17b-81, 17b-223, 17b-2131 745, as amended by this act, 46b-129, 46b-130 or 46b-215, as amended by 2132 this act, to be reasonably commensurate with the financial ability of the 2133 defendant, and to pay a certain sum periodically until the child attains 2134 the age of eighteen years or as otherwise provided in this subsection. If 2135 such child is unmarried and a full-time high school student, such 2136 support shall continue according to the parents' respective abilities, if 2137 such child is in need of support, until such child completes the twelfth 2138 grade or attains the age of nineteen, whichever occurs first.

2139 (B) The court or family support magistrate shall order the defendant 2140 to pay such sum to the complainant, or, if a town or the state has paid 2141 such expense, to the town or the state, as the case may be, and shall grant 2142 execution for the same and costs of suit taxed as in other civil actions, 2143 together with a reasonable attorney's fee, and may require the defendant 2144 to become bound with sufficient surety to perform such orders for 2145 support and maintenance. In IV-D support cases, the IV-D agency or a 2146 support enforcement agency under cooperative agreement with the IV-
2147 D agency may, upon notice to the obligor and obligee, redirect payments
2148 for the support of any child receiving child support enforcement
2149 services either to the state of Connecticut or to the present custodial 2150 party, as their interests may appear, provided neither the obligor nor the 2151 obligee objects in writing within ten business days from the mailing date 2152 of such notice. Any such notice shall be sent by first class mail to the 2153 most recent address of such obligor and obligee, as recorded in the state 2154 case registry pursuant to section 46b-218, and a copy of such notice shall 2155 be filed with the court or family support magistrate if both the obligor

2156 and obligee fail to object to the redirected payments within ten business
2157 days from the mailing date of such notice. All payments made shall be 2158 distributed as required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

2159 (2) In addition, the court or family support magistrate shall include 2160 in each support order in a IV-D support case a provision for the health 2161 care coverage of the child. Such provision may include an order for 2162 either parent or both parents to provide such coverage under any or all 2163 of subparagraphs (A), (B) or (C) of this subdivision.

2165 either parent to name any child as a beneficiary of any medical or dental 2166 insurance or benefit plan carried by such parent or available to such 2167 parent at a reasonable cost as described in subparagraph (D) of this 2168 subdivision. If such order requires the parent to maintain insurance 2169 available through an employer, the order shall be enforced using a 2170 National Medical Support Notice as provided in section 46b-88.

2172 either parent to: (i) Apply for and maintain coverage on behalf of the 2173 child under the HUSKY Plan, Part B; or (ii) provide cash medical 2174 support, as described in subparagraphs (E) and (F) of this subdivision.
2175 An order under this subparagraph shall be made only if the cost to the 2176 parent obligated to maintain coverage under the HUSKY Plan, Part B, 2177 or provide cash medical support is reasonable, as described in 2178 subparagraph (D) of this subdivision. An order under clause (i) of this 2179 subparagraph shall be made only if insurance coverage as described in 2180 subparagraph (A) of this subdivision is unavailable at reasonable cost to 2181 either parent, or inaccessible to the child.

2182 (C) An order for payment of the child's medical and dental expenses,
2183 other than those described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (E) of this 2184 subdivision, that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in any 2185 other manner shall be entered in accordance with the child support 2186 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a.

2187 (D) Health care coverage shall be deemed reasonable in cost if: (i) The

2191 does not exceed five per cent of such parent's net income; or (ii) the
2193 income obligor under such guidelines and the cost does not exceed 2194 seven and one-half per cent of such parent's net income. In either case,
2196 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a. If a parent
2198 herself to comply with the order to provide coverage for the child, 2199 reasonable cost shall be determined based on the combined cost of 2200 coverage for such parent and such child.

2201 (E) Cash medical support means (i) an amount ordered to be paid
2202 toward the cost of premiums for health insurance coverage provided by 2203 a public entity, including the HUSKY Plan, Part A or Part B, except as 2204 provided in subparagraph (F) of this subdivision, or by another parent
2205 through employment or otherwise, or (ii) an amount ordered to be paid, 2206 either directly to a medical provider or to the person obligated to pay 2207 such provider, toward any ongoing extraordinary medical and dental 2208 expenses of the child that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in 2209 any other manner, provided such expenses are documented and
2211 under oath, that also states that no restraining order issued pursuant to 2212 section 46b-15, as amended by this act, or protective order issued 2213 pursuant to section 46b-38c, between the parties is in effect or pending 2214 before the court. Cash medical support, as described in clauses (i) and 2215 (ii) of this subparagraph, may be ordered in lieu of an order under 2216 subparagraph (A) of this subdivision to be effective until such time as 2217 health insurance that is accessible to the child and reasonable in cost
2218 becomes available, or in addition to an order under subparagraph (A) 2219 of this subdivision, provided the total cost to the obligated parent of 2220 insurance and cash medical support is reasonable, as described in 2221 subparagraph (D) of this subdivision. An order for cash medical support

2222 shall be payable to the state or the custodial party, as their interests may 2223 appear, provided an order under clause (i) of this subparagraph shall be 2224 effective only as long as health insurance coverage is maintained. Any 2225 unreimbursed medical and dental expenses not covered by an order 2226 pursuant to clause (ii) of this subparagraph are subject to an order for 2227 unreimbursed medical and dental expenses pursuant to subparagraph 2228 (C) of this subdivision.

2229 (F) Cash medical support to offset the cost of any insurance payable 2230 under the HUSKY Plan, Part A or Part B, shall not be ordered against a 2231 noncustodial parent who is a low-income obligor, as defined in the child 2232 support guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a, or against 2233 a custodial parent of children covered under the HUSKY Plan, Part A or 2234 Part B.

2235 (3) The court or family support magistrate may also make and enforce 2236 orders for the payment by any person named herein of past-due support 2237 for which the defendant is liable in accordance with the provisions of 2238 section 17a-90 or 17b-81, subsection (b) of section 17b-179 or section 17b-2239 223, 46b-129 or 46b-130 and, in IV-D cases, order such person, provided 2240 such person is not incapacitated, to participate in work activities which 2241 may include, but shall not be limited to, job search, training, work 2242 experience and participation in the job training and retraining program 2243 established by the Labor Commissioner pursuant to section 31-3t. The 2244 defendant's liability for past-due support under this subdivision shall 2245 be limited to the three years next preceding the filing of the petition.

2246 (4) If the defendant fails to comply with any order made under this 2247 section, the court or family support magistrate may commit the 2248 defendant to a community correctional center, there to remain until the 2249 defendant complies therewith; but, if it appears that the mother does not 2250 apply the periodic allowance paid by the defendant toward the support 2251 of such child, and that such child is chargeable, or likely to become 2252 chargeable, to the town where it belongs, the court, on application, may 2253 discontinue such allowance to the mother, and may direct it to be paid 2254 to the selectmen of such town, for such support, and may issue

2255 execution in their favor for the same. The provisions of section 17b-743 2256 shall apply to this section. The clerk of the court which has rendered 2257 judgment for the payment of money for the maintenance of any child 2258 under the provisions of this section shall, within twenty-four hours after 2259 such judgment has been rendered, notify the selectmen of the town 2260 where the child belongs.

2261 (5) Any support order made under this section may at any time 2262 thereafter be set aside, altered or modified by any court issuing such 2263 order upon a showing of a substantial change in the circumstances of 2264 the defendant or the mother of such child or upon a showing that such 2265 order substantially deviates from the child support guidelines 2266 established pursuant to section 46b-215a, unless there was a specific 2267 finding on the record at a hearing, or in a written judgment, order or 2268 memorandum of decision of the court, that the application of the 2269 guidelines would be inequitable or inappropriate. There shall be a 2270 rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than fifteen per cent
2271 from the child support guidelines is not substantial and any deviation
2272 of fifteen per cent or more from the guidelines is substantial.
2273 Modification may be made of such support order without regard to 2274 whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991. No such 2275 support orders may be subject to retroactive modification, except that 2276 the court may order modification with respect to any period during 2277 which there is a pending motion for a modification of an existing 2278 support order from the date of service of the notice of such pending 2279 motion upon the opposing party pursuant to section 52-50.

2280 (6) Failure of the defendant to obey any order for support made under 2281 this section may be punished as for contempt of court and the costs of 2282 commitment of any person imprisoned therefor shall be paid by the 2283 state as in criminal cases.

2285 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

2286 (a) (1) The Superior Court or a family support magistrate may make 2287 and enforce orders for payment of support against any person who 2288 neglects or refuses to furnish necessary support to such person's spouse 2289 or a child under the age of eighteen or as otherwise provided in this 2290 subsection, according to such person's ability to furnish such support, 2291 notwithstanding the provisions of section 46b-37. If such child is 2292 unmarried and a full-time high school student, such support shall 2293 continue according to the parents' respective abilities, if such child is in 2294 need of support, until such child completes the twelfth grade or attains 2295 the age of nineteen, whichever occurs first.

2296 (2) Any such support order in a IV-D support case shall include a 2297 provision for the health care coverage of the child. Such provision may 2298 include an order for either parent or both parents to provide such 2299 coverage under any or all of subparagraphs (A), (B) or (C) of this 2300 subdivision.

2301 (A) The provision for health care coverage may include an order for 2302 either parent to name any child as a beneficiary of any medical or dental 2303 insurance or benefit plan carried by such parent or available to such 2304 parent at a reasonable cost, as defined in subparagraph (D) of this 2305 subdivision. If such order requires the parent to maintain insurance
2306 available through an employer, the order shall be enforced using a 2307 National Medical Support Notice as provided in section 46b-88.

2308 (B) The provision for health care coverage may include an order for 2309 either parent to: (i) Apply for and maintain coverage on behalf of the 2310 child under the HUSKY Plan, Part B; or (ii) provide cash medical 2311 support, as described in subparagraphs (E) and (F) of this subdivision.
2312 An order under this subparagraph shall be made only if the cost to the 2313 parent obligated to maintain coverage under the HUSKY Plan, Part B, 2314 or provide cash medical support is reasonable, as defined in 2315 subparagraph (D) of this subdivision. An order under clause (i) of this 2316 subparagraph shall be made only if insurance coverage as described in 2317 subparagraph (A) of this subdivision is unavailable at reasonable cost to 2318 either parent, or inaccessible to the child.

2319 (C) An order for payment of the child's medical and dental expenses,
2320 other than those described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (E) of this 2321 subdivision, that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in any 2322 other manner shall be entered in accordance with the child support 2323 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a.

2324 (D) Health care coverage shall be deemed reasonable in cost if: (i) The 2325 parent obligated to maintain such coverage would qualify as a low-
2327 to section 46b-215a, based solely on such parent's income, and the cost 2328 does not exceed five per cent of such parent's net income; or (ii) the 2329 parent obligated to maintain such coverage would not qualify as a low-2330 income obligor under such guidelines and the cost does not exceed 2331 seven and one-half per cent of such parent's net income. In either case,
2332 net income shall be determined in accordance with the child support
2333 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a. If a parent 2334 obligated to maintain insurance must obtain coverage for himself or 2335 herself to comply with the order to provide coverage for the child, 2336 reasonable cost shall be determined based on the combined cost of 2337 coverage for such parent and such child.

2338 (E) Cash medical support means (i) an amount ordered to be paid
2339 toward the cost of premiums for health insurance coverage provided by 2340 a public entity, including the HUSKY Plan, Part A or Part B, except as 2341 provided in subparagraph (F) of this subdivision, or by another parent
2342 through employment or otherwise, or (ii) an amount ordered to be paid,
2343 either directly to a medical provider or to the person obligated to pay
2344 such provider, toward any ongoing extraordinary medical and dental 2345 expenses of the child that are not covered by insurance or reimbursed in 2346 any other manner, provided such expenses are documented and 2347 identified (I) specifically on the record, or (II) in an affidavit, made
2349 section 46b-15, as amended by this act, or protective order issued
2350 pursuant to section 46b-38c, between the parties is in effect or pending 2351 before the court. Cash medical support, as described in clauses (i) and 2352 (ii) of this subparagraph, may be ordered in lieu of an order under

2353 subparagraph (A) of this subdivision to be effective until such time as 2354 health insurance that is accessible to the child and reasonable in cost
2355 becomes available, or in addition to an order under subparagraph (A) 2356 of this subdivision, provided the total cost to the obligated parent of 2357 insurance and cash medical support is reasonable, as described in 2358 subparagraph (D) of this subdivision. An order for cash medical support 2359 shall be payable to the state or the custodial party, as their interests may
2361 effective only as long as health insurance coverage is maintained. Any 2362 unreimbursed medical and dental expenses not covered by an order 2363 issued pursuant to clause (ii) of this subparagraph are subject to an 2364 order for unreimbursed medical and dental expenses pursuant to 2365 subparagraph (C) of this subdivision.

2366 (F) Cash medical support to offset the cost of any insurance payable 2367 under the HUSKY Plan, Part A or Part B, shall not be ordered against a
2368 noncustodial parent who is a low-income obligor, as defined in the child 2369 support guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a, or against
2371 Part B.

2372 (3) Proceedings to obtain orders of support under this section shall be 2373 commenced by the service on the liable person or persons of a verified 2374 petition, with summons and order, of the husband or wife, child or any 2375 relative or the conservator, guardian or support enforcement officer, 2376 town or state, or any selectmen or the public official charged with the 2377 administration of public assistance of the town, or in IV-D support cases, 2378 as defined in subdivision (13) of subsection (b) of section 46b-231, the 2379 Commissioner of Social Services. The verified petition, summons and 2380 order shall be filed in the judicial district in which the petitioner or 2381 respondent resides or does business, or if filed in the Family Support 2382 Magistrate Division, in the judicial district in which the petitioner or 2383 respondent resides or does business.

2384 (4) For purposes of this section, the term "child" shall include one 2385 born out of wedlock whose father has acknowledged in writing

2386 paternity of such child or has been adjudged the father by a court of 2387 competent jurisdiction, or a child who was born before marriage whose 2388 parents afterwards intermarry.

2389 (5) Said court or family support magistrate shall also have authority 2390 to make and enforce orders directed to the conservator or guardian of 2391 any person, or payee of Social Security or other benefits to which such 2392 person is entitled, to the extent of the income or estate held by such 2393 fiduciary or payee in any such capacity.

2394 (6) Said court or family support magistrate shall also have authority 2395 to determine, order and enforce payment of any sums due under a 2396 written agreement to support against the person liable for such support 2397 under such agreement.

2398 (7) (A) The court or family support magistrate may also determine, 2399 order and enforce payment of any support due because of neglect or 2400 refusal to furnish support for periods prior to the action. In the case of a 2401 child born out of wedlock whose parents have not intermarried, a 2402 parent's liability for such support shall be limited to the three years next 2403 preceding the filing of a petition or written agreement to support 2404 pursuant to this section.

2405 (B) In the determination of support due based on neglect or refusal to 2406 furnish support prior to the action, the support due for periods of time 2407 prior to the action shall be based upon the obligor's ability to pay during 2408 such prior periods, as determined in accordance with the child support 2409 guidelines established pursuant to section 46b-215a. The state shall 2410 disclose to the court any information in its possession concerning 2411 current and past ability to pay. If no information is available to the court 2412 concerning past ability to pay, the court may determine the support due 2413 for periods of time prior to the action as if past ability to pay is equal to 2414 current ability to pay, if current ability is known. If current ability to pay
2415 is not known, the court shall determine the past ability to pay based on 2416 the obligor's work history, if known, or if not known, on the state
2417 minimum wage that was in effect during such periods, provided only

2418 actual earnings shall be used to determine ability to pay for past periods
2419 during which the obligor was a full-time high school student or was 2420 incarcerated, institutionalized or incapacitated.

2422 in which the obligor failed to appear shall be entered subject to 2423 adjustment. Such adjustment may be made upon motion of any party,
2425 information that would have substantially affected the court's 2426 determination of past ability to pay if such information had been 2427 available to the court. Motion for adjustment under this subparagraph
2430 support due for periods of time prior to the action, and (ii) the right not
2432 present evidence as to such obligor's past ability to pay support for such 2433 periods of time prior to the action. A copy of any support order entered, 2434 subject to adjustment, shall state in plain language the basis for the 2435 court's determination of past support, the right to request an adjustment 2436 and to present information concerning the obligor's past ability to pay, 2437 and the consequences of a failure to request such adjustment.

2438 (8) (A) The judge or family support magistrate shall cause a 2439 summons, signed by such judge or magistrate, by the clerk of said court 2440 or Family Support Magistrate Division, or by a commissioner of the 2441 Superior Court to be issued requiring such liable person or persons to 2442 appear in court or before a family support magistrate, at a time and 2443 place as determined by the clerk but not more than ninety days after the 2444 issuance of the summons. Service may be made by a state marshal, any 2445 proper officer or any investigator employed by the Department of Social 2446 Services or by the Commissioner of Administrative Services. The state 2447 marshal, proper officer or investigator shall make due return of process 2448 to the court not less than twenty-one days before the date assigned for 2449 hearing. Upon proof of the service of the summons to appear in court or 2450 before a family support magistrate at the time and place named for 2451 hearing upon such petition, the failure of the defendant or defendants

2452 to appear shall not prohibit the court or family support magistrate from 2453 going forward with the hearing. If the summons and order is signed by 2454 a commissioner of the Superior Court, upon proof of service of the 2455 summons to appear in court or before a family support magistrate and 2456 upon the failure of the defendant to appear at the time and place named 2457 for hearing upon the petition, request may be made by the petitioner to 2458 the court or family support magistrate for an order that a capias
2459 mittimus be issued.

2460 (B) In the case of a person supported wholly or in part by a town, the 2461 welfare authority of the town shall notify the responsible relatives of 2462 such person of the amount of assistance given, the beginning date 2463 thereof and the amount of support expected from each of them, if any, 2464 and if any such relative does not contribute in such expected amount, 2465 the superior court for the judicial district in which such town is located 2466 or a family support magistrate sitting in the judicial district in which 2467 such town is located may order such relative or relatives to contribute 2468 to such support, from the time of the beginning date of expense shown 2469 on the notice, such sum as said court or family support magistrate 2470 deems reasonably within each such relative's ability to support such 2471 person.

2472 (C) The court, or any judge thereof, or family support magistrate 2473 when said court or family support magistrate is not sitting, may require 2474 the defendant or defendants to become bound, with sufficient surety, to 2475 the state, town or person bringing the complaint, to abide such 2476 judgment as may be rendered on such complaint. Failure of the 2477 defendant or defendants to obey any order made under this section may 2478 be punished as contempt of court and the costs of commitment of any 2479 person imprisoned for contempt shall be paid by the state as in criminal 2480 cases. Except as otherwise provided, upon proof of the service of the 2481 summons to appear in court or before a family support magistrate at the 2482 time and place named for a hearing upon the failure of the defendant or 2483 defendants to obey such court order or order of the family support 2484 magistrate, the court or family support magistrate may order a capias 2485 mittimus be issued and directed to a judicial marshal to the extent

2486 authorized pursuant to section 46b-225, or any other proper officer to 2487 arrest such defendant or defendants and bring such defendant or 2488 defendants before the Superior Court for the contempt hearing. When 2489 any person is found in contempt under this section, the court or family 2490 support magistrate may award to the petitioner a reasonable attorney's 2491 fee and the fees of the officer serving the contempt citation, such sums 2492 to be paid by the person found in contempt.

2493 (9) In addition to or in lieu of such contempt proceedings, the court 2494 or family support magistrate, upon a finding that any person has failed 2495 to obey any order made under this section, may: (A) Order a plan for 2496 payment of any past-due support owing under such order, or, in IV-D 2497 cases, if such obligor is not incapacitated, order such obligor to 2498 participate in work activities which may include, but shall not be limited
2499 to, job search, training, work experience and participation in the job
2500 training and retraining program established by the Labor
2501 Commissioner pursuant to section 31-3t; (B) suspend any professional, 2502 occupational, recreational, commercial driver's or motor vehicle 2503 operator's license as provided in subsections (b) to (e), inclusive, of 2504 section 46b-220, provided such failure was without good cause; (C) issue 2505 an income withholding order against such amount of any debt accruing 2506 by reason of personal services as provided by sections 52-362, as 2507 amended by this act, 52-362b and 52-362c; and (D) order executions 2508 against any real, personal, or other property of such person which 2509 cannot be categorized solely as either, for payment of accrued and 2510 unpaid amounts due under such order.

2511 (10) No entry fee, judgment fee or any other court fee shall be charged 2512 by the court or the family support magistrate to either party in 2513 proceedings under this section.

2514 (11) Any written agreement to support which is filed with the court 2515 or the Family Support Magistrate Division shall have the effect of an 2516 order of the court or a family support magistrate.

2517 (b) The Attorney General of the state of Connecticut and the attorney 2518 representing a town shall become a party for the interest of the state of 2519 Connecticut and such town in any proceedings for support which 2520 concerns any person who is receiving or has received public assistance 2521 or care from the state or any town. The Attorney General shall represent 2522 the IV-D agency in non-TFA IV-D support cases if the IV-D agency

2523 determines that such representation is required pursuant to guidelines 2524 issued by the Commissioner of Social Services.

2525 (c) The court or a family support magistrate shall direct all payments 2526 on orders of support in IV-D cases to be made to the state acting by and 2527 through the IV-D agency. In IV-D support cases, the IV-D agency or a
2528 support enforcement agency under cooperative agreement with the IV-
2529 D agency may, upon notice to the obligor and obligee, redirect payments
2530 for the support of any child receiving child support enforcement
2531 services either to the state of Connecticut or to the present custodial 2532 party, as their interests may appear, provided neither the obligor nor the
2534 of such notice. Any such notice shall be sent by first class mail to the 2535 most recent address of such obligor and obligee, as recorded in the state 2536 case registry pursuant to section 46b-218, and a copy of such notice shall
2538 and obligee fail to object to the redirected payments within ten business 2539 days from the mailing date of such notice. All payments made shall be 2540 distributed as required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

2541 (d) No order for support made by the court or a family support 2542 magistrate shall be stayed by an appeal but such order shall continue in 2543 effect until a determination is made thereon upon such appeal; if 2544 however as a result of such appeal or further hearing, the amount of 2545 such order is reduced or vacated, such defendant shall be credited or 2546 reimbursed accordingly.

2547 (e) Except as provided in sections 46b-301 to 46b-425, inclusive, any 2548 court or family support magistrate, called upon to enforce a support
2550 ability to pay. Except as provided in sections 46b-301 to 46b-425,

2551 inclusive, any support order entered pursuant to this section, or any 2552 support order from another jurisdiction subject to enforcement by the 2553 state of Connecticut, may be modified by motion of the party seeking 2554 such modification upon a showing of a substantial change in the 2555 circumstances of either party or upon a showing that such support order 2556 substantially deviates from the child support guidelines established 2557 pursuant to section 46b-215a, unless there was a specific finding on the
2561 magistrate finds that the obligor or the obligee and any other interested
2562 party have received actual notice of the pendency of such motion and of
2564 rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than fifteen per cent
2565 from the child support guidelines is not substantial and any deviation 2566 of fifteen per cent or more from the guidelines is substantial.
2567 Modification may be made of such support order without regard to 2568 whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991. No such 2569 support orders may be subject to retroactive modification, except that 2570 the court or family support magistrate may order modification with 2571 respect to any period during which there is a pending motion for a 2572 modification of an existing support order from the date of service of the 2573 notice of such pending motion upon the opposing party pursuant to 2574 section 52-50. In any hearing to modify any support order from another 2575 jurisdiction the court or the family support magistrate shall conduct the 2576 proceedings in accordance with sections 46b-384 to 46b-387, inclusive.

2577 (f) In IV-D support cases, as defined in subdivision (13) of subsection 2578 (b) of section 46b-231, a copy of any support order established or 2579 modified pursuant to this section or, in the case of a motion for 2580 modification of an existing support order, a notice of determination that 2581 there should be no change in the amount of the support order, shall be 2582 provided to each party and the state case registry within fourteen days 2583 after issuance of such order or determination.

2584 Sec. 37. Subsection (a) of section 46b-215b of the general statutes is

2586 passage):

2587 (a) The child support and arrearage guidelines issued pursuant to 2588 section 46b-215a, adopted as regulations pursuant to section 46b-215c, 2589 and in effect on the date of the support determination shall be 2590 considered in all determinations of child support award amounts, 2591 including any current support, health care coverage, child care 2592 contribution and past-due support amounts, and payment on 2593 arrearages and past-due support within the state. In all such 2594 determinations, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the amount 2595 of such awards which resulted from the application of such guidelines 2596 is the amount to be ordered. A specific finding on the record at a 2597 hearing, or in a written judgment, order or memorandum of decision of 2598 the court, that the application of the guidelines would be inequitable or 2599 inappropriate in a particular case, as determined under the deviation 2600 criteria established by the Commission for Child Support Guidelines 2601 under section 46b-215a, shall be required in order to rebut the 2602 presumption in such case.

2603 Sec. 38. Subsection (m) of section 46b-231 of the general statutes is
2605 passage):

2606 (m) The Chief Family Support Magistrate and the family support 2607 magistrates shall have the powers and duties enumerated in this 2608 subsection.

2609 (1) A family support magistrate in IV-D support cases may compel 2610 the attendance of witnesses or the obligor under a summons issued 2611 pursuant to section 17b-745, as amended by this act, 46b-172 or 46b-215, 2612 as amended by this act, a subpoena issued pursuant to section 52-143, 2613 or a citation for failure to obey an order of a family support magistrate 2614 or a judge of the Superior Court. If a person is served with any such 2615 summons, subpoena or citation issued by a family support magistrate 2616 or the assistant clerk of the Family Support Magistrate Division and fails

2617 to appear, a family support magistrate may issue a capias mittimus 2618 directed to a judicial marshal to the extent authorized pursuant to 2619 section 46b-225, or any other proper officer to arrest the obligor or the 2620 witness and bring the obligor or witness before a family support 2621 magistrate. Whenever such a capias mittimus is ordered, the family 2622 support magistrate shall establish a recognizance to the state of 2623 Connecticut in the form of a bond of such character and amount as to 2624 assure the appearance of the obligor at the next regular session of the 2625 Family Support Magistrate Division in the judicial district in which the 2626 matter is pending. If the obligor posts such a bond, and thereafter fails 2627 to appear before the family support magistrate at the time and place the 2628 obligor is ordered to appear, the family support magistrate may order 2629 the bond forfeited, and the proceeds thereof distributed as required by 2630 Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

2631 (2) (A) Family support magistrates shall hear and determine matters 2632 involving child and spousal support in IV-D support cases including 2633 petitions for support brought pursuant to sections 17b-81, 17b-179, 17b-2634 745, as amended by this act, and 46b-215, as amended by this act, 2635 applications for show cause orders in IV-D support cases brought 2636 pursuant to subsection (b) of section 46b-172, and actions for interstate 2637 enforcement of child and spousal support and paternity under sections 2638 46b-301 to 46b-425, inclusive, and shall hear and determine all motions 2639 for modifications of child and spousal support in such cases.

2640 (B) In all IV-D support cases, family support magistrates shall have 2641 the authority to order any obligor who is subject to a plan for 2642 reimbursement of past-due support and is not incapacitated to
2644 to, job search, training, work experience and participation in the job
2645 training and retraining program established by the Labor
2646 Commissioner pursuant to section 31-3t.

2647 (C) A family support magistrate shall not modify an order for 2648 periodic payment on an arrearage due the state for state assistance 2649 which has been discontinued to increase such payments, unless the 2650 family support magistrate first determines that the state has made a 2651 reasonable effort to notify the current recipient of child support, at the 2652 most current address available to the IV-D agency, of the pendency of 2653 the motion to increase such periodic arrearage payments and of the time 2654 and place of the hearing on such motion. If such recipient appears, either 2655 personally or through a representative, at such hearing, the family 2656 support magistrate shall determine whether the order in effect for child 2657 support is reasonable in relation to the current financial circumstances 2658 of the parties, prior to modifying an order increasing such periodic 2659 arrearage payments.

2660 (3) Family support magistrates shall review and approve or 2661 disapprove all agreements for support in IV-D support cases filed with 2662 the Family Support Magistrate Division in accordance with sections 2663 17b-179, 17b-745, as amended by this act, 46b-172, 46b-215, as amended 2664 by this act, and subsection (c) of section 53-304.

2665 (4) Motions for modification of existing child and spousal support 2666 orders entered by the Superior Court in IV-D support cases, including 2667 motions to modify existing child and spousal support orders entered in 2668 actions brought pursuant to chapter 815j, shall be brought in the Family 2669 Support Magistrate Division and decided by a family support 2670 magistrate. Family support magistrates, in deciding if a spousal or child 2671 support order should be modified, shall make such determination based 2672 upon the criteria set forth in sections 46b-84, as amended by this act, and 2673 46b-215b, as amended by this act. A person who is aggrieved by a 2674 decision of a family support magistrate modifying a Superior Court 2675 order is entitled to appeal such decision in accordance with the 2676 provisions of subsection (n) of this section.

2677 (5) Proceedings to establish paternity in IV-D support cases shall be 2678 filed in the family support magistrate division for the judicial district 2679 where the mother or putative father resides. The matter shall be heard 2680 and determined by a family support magistrate in accordance with the 2681 provisions of chapter 815y.

2682 (6) Agreements for support obtained in IV-D support cases shall be 2683 filed with the assistant clerk of the family support magistrate division 2684 for the judicial district where the mother or the father of the child 2685 resides, pursuant to subsection (b) of section 46b-172, and shall become 2686 effective as an order upon filing with the clerk. Such support agreements 2687 shall be reviewed by a family support magistrate who shall approve or 2688 disapprove the agreement. If the support agreement filed with the clerk 2689 is disapproved by a family support magistrate, the reason for 2690 disapproval shall be stated in the record and such disapproval shall 2691 have a retroactive effect. Upon such disapproval, the clerk shall 2692 schedule a hearing for the purpose of determining appropriate support 2693 amounts and shall notify all appearing parties of the hearing date.

2694 (7) Family support magistrates shall enforce orders for child and 2695 spousal support entered by such family support magistrate and by the 2696 Superior Court in IV-D support cases by citing an obligor for contempt.
2697 Family support magistrates, in IV-D support cases, may order any 2698 obligor who is subject to a plan for reimbursement of past-due support 2699 and is not incapacitated, to participate in work activities which may 2700 include, but shall not be limited to, job search, training, work experience 2701 and participation in the job training and retraining program established 2702 by the Labor Commissioner pursuant to section 31-3t. Family support 2703 magistrates shall also enforce income withholding orders entered 2704 pursuant to section 52-362, as amended by this act, including any 2705 additional amounts to be applied toward liquidation of any arrearage, 2706 as required under subsection (e) of said section. Family support 2707 magistrates may require the obligor to furnish recognizance to the state 2708 of Connecticut in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character 2709 and in such amount as the Family Support Magistrate Division deems 2710 proper to assure appearance at the next regular session of the Family 2711 Support Magistrate Division in the judicial district in which the matter 2712 is pending. Upon failure of the obligor to post such bond, the family 2713 support magistrate may refer the obligor to a community correctional 2714 center until he has complied with such order, provided the obligor shall 2715 be heard at the next regular session of the Family Support Magistrate

2716 Division in the court to which he was summoned. If no regular session 2717 is held within seven days of such referral, the family support magistrate 2718 shall either cause a special session of the Family Support Magistrate 2719 Division to be convened, or the obligor shall be heard by a Superior 2720 Court judge in the judicial district in which the matter is pending. If the 2721 obligor fails to appear before the family support magistrate at the time 2722 and place he is ordered to appear, the family support magistrate may 2723 order the bond, if any, forfeited, and the proceeds thereof distributed as 2724 required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, and the family support 2725 magistrate may issue a capias mittimus for the arrest of the obligor, 2726 ordering him to appear before the family support magistrate. A family 2727 support magistrate may determine whether or not an obligor is in 2728 contempt of the order of the Superior Court or of a family support 2729 magistrate and may make such orders as are provided by law to enforce 2730 a support obligation, except that if the family support magistrate 2731 determines that incarceration of an obligor for failure to obey a support 2732 order may be indicated, the family support magistrate shall inform the 2733 obligor of his right to be represented by an attorney and his right to a 2734 court-appointed attorney to represent him if he is indigent. If the obligor 2735 claims he is indigent and desires an attorney to represent him, the family 2736 support magistrate shall conduct a hearing to determine if the obligor is 2737 indigent. If, after such hearing, the family support magistrate finds that 2738 the obligor is indigent, the family support magistrate shall appoint an 2739 attorney to represent the obligor.

2740 (8) Agreements between parties as to custody and visitation of minor 2741 children in IV-D support cases may be filed with the assistant clerk of 2742 the Family Support Magistrate Division. Such agreements shall be 2743 reviewed by a family support magistrate, who shall approve the 2744 agreement unless he finds such agreement is not in the best interests of 2745 the child. Agreements between parties as to custody and visitation in 2746 IV-D support cases shall be enforced in the same manner as agreements 2747 for support are enforced, pursuant to subdivision (7) of this subsection.

2748 (9) Agreements between the parties as to the modification or 2749 enforcement of support orders in IV-D support cases may be filed with 2750 the assistant clerk of the Family Support Magistrate Division for the 2751 judicial district where the mother or father of the child resides and 2752 where the parties have submitted to a motion for modification or an 2753 application for contempt of an existing child or spousal support order.

2754 Such agreements may be approved by the family support magistrate 2755 after an inquiry into the financial needs, resources and the respective 2756 abilities of the parties. The inquiry required pursuant to this subdivision 2757 may take place on the record at a hearing, or may be made on the basis 2758 of an affidavit from each party, made under oath, stating that (A) each 2759 party has the financial resources and other facts satisfying any 2760 requirement of the inquiry in question, and (B) that no restraining order 2761 issued pursuant to section 46b-15, as amended by this act, or protective
2762 order issued pursuant to section 46b-38c, between the parties is in effect
2763 or pending before the court. If each party so attests, a family support 2764 magistrate may (i) determine whether the agreement between the 2765 parties as to modification or enforcement of a support order is fair and 2766 equitable under all the circumstances, and (ii) make any other findings 2767 required by this section.

2768 [(9)] (10) Whenever an obligor is before a family support magistrate 2769 in proceedings to establish, modify or enforce a support order in a IV-D 2770 support case and such order is not secured by an income withholding 2771 order, the family support magistrate may require the obligor to execute 2772 a bond or post other security sufficient to perform such order for 2773 support, provided the family support magistrate finds that such a bond 2774 is available for purchase within the financial means of the obligor. Upon 2775 failure of such obligor to comply with such support order, the family 2776 support magistrate may order the bond or the security forfeited and the 2777 proceeds thereof distributed as required by Title IV-D of the Social 2778 Security Act.

2779 [(10)] (11) In any proceeding in the Family Support Magistrate 2780 Division, if the family support magistrate finds that a party is indigent 2781 and unable to pay a fee or fees payable to the court or to pay the cost of 2782 service of process, the family support magistrate shall waive such fee or 2783 fees and the cost of service of process shall be paid by the state.

2784 [(11)] (12) A family support magistrate may dismiss any action or 2785 proceeding which the family support magistrate may hear and 2786 determine.

2787 [(12)] (13) A family support magistrate may order parties to 2788 participate in the parenting education program in accordance with the 2789 provisions of section 46b-69b.

2790 [(13)] (14) Family support magistrates may issue writs of habeas 2791 corpus ad testificandum in IV-D support cases for persons in the 2792 custody of the Commissioner of Correction.

2793 (15) A family support magistrate may, upon the filing of a motion to 2794 modify an existing support order based on the fact that the Social 2795 Security Administration, or a state agency authorized to award 2796 disability benefits has determined that the obligor qualifies for disability 2797 benefits under the federal Supplemental Security Income Program and 2798 the filing of an affidavit by a support enforcement officer: (A) Modify 2799 the existing support order to zero dollars without a hearing; (B) 2800 schedule the motion for a hearing; or (C) deny the motion without a 2801 hearing. The support enforcement officer's affidavit shall state: (i) The 2802 date that the child support obligor qualified for benefits under the 2803 federal Supplemental Security Income Program; (ii) that the support 2804 enforcement officer confirmed such benefits with the federal Social 2805 Security Administration or another federal agency with access to Social 2806 Security Administration applicant and benefit information; (iii) that a 2807 diligent search failed to identify any other income or assets that could 2808 be used to satisfy the child support order; (iv) that support enforcement 2809 services provided notice to the custodial party in accordance with 2810 section 52-57 or by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the 2811 proposed modification, that the custodial party had the right to object 2812 to the proposed modification, and that support enforcement services 2813 must receive any objection to the proposed modification not later than 2814 fifteen calendar days after the date that the custodial party received such 2815 notice; and (v) that support enforcement services did not receive an 2816 objection from the custodial party. Any support order modified

2817 pursuant to this subdivision may be later modified upon a finding of a 2818 substantial change in circumstances. Nothing in this subdivision shall 2819 preclude a family support magistrate from modifying an existing 2820 support order under any other section of the general statutes.

2821 Sec. 39. Section 51-14 of the general statutes is repealed and the 2822 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

2823 (a) The judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Appellate 2824 Court, and the judges of the Superior Court shall adopt and promulgate 2825 and may from time to time modify or repeal rules and forms regulating 2826 pleading, practice and procedure in judicial proceedings in courts in 2827 which they have the constitutional authority to make rules, for the 2828 purpose of simplifying proceedings in the courts and of promoting the 2829 speedy and efficient determination of litigation upon its merits. The 2830 rules of the Appellate Court shall be as consistent as feasible with the 2831 rules of the Supreme Court to promote uniformity in the procedure for 2832 the taking of appeals and may dispense, so far as justice to the parties 2833 will permit while affording a fair review, with the necessity of printing 2834 of records and briefs. Such rules shall not abridge, enlarge or modify 2835 any substantive right or the jurisdiction of any of the courts. [Subject to 2836 the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, such] Such rules shall 2837 become effective on such date as the judges specify but not in any event 2838 until sixty days after such promulgation, except that such rules may 2839 become effective prior to the expiration of the sixty-day time period if 2840 the judges deem that circumstances require that a new rule or a change 2841 to an existing rule be adopted expeditiously.

2842 (b) All statutes relating to pleading, practice and procedure in 2843 existence on July 1, 1957, shall be deemed to be rules of court and shall 2844 remain in effect as such only until modified, superseded or suspended 2845 by rules adopted and promulgated by the judges of the Supreme Court 2846 or the Superior Court pursuant to the provisions of this section. The 2847 Chief Justice shall report any such rules to the General Assembly for 2848 study at the beginning of each regular session. Such rules shall be 2849 referred by the speaker of the House or by the president of the Senate to

2850 the judiciary committee for its consideration and such committee shall 2851 schedule hearings thereon. Any rule or any part thereof disapproved by 2852 the General Assembly by resolution shall be void and of no effect and a 2853 copy of such resolution shall thereafter be published once in the 2854 Connecticut Law Journal.

2855 (c) The judges or a committee of their number shall hold public 2856 hearings, of which reasonable notice shall be given in the Connecticut 2857 Law Journal and otherwise as they deem proper, upon any proposed 2858 new rule or any change in an existing rule that is to come before said 2859 judges for action, and each such proposed new rule or change in an 2860 existing rule shall be published in the Connecticut Law Journal as a part 2861 of such notice. A public hearing shall be held at least once a year, of 2862 which reasonable notice shall likewise be given, at which any member 2863 of the bar or layman may bring to the attention of the judges any new 2864 rule or change in an existing rule that he deems desirable.

2865 (d) Upon the taking effect of such rules adopted and promulgated by 2866 the judges of the Supreme Court pursuant to the provisions of this 2867 section, all provisions of rules theretofore promulgated by the judges of 2868 the Superior Court shall be deemed to be repealed.

2869 Sec. 40. Subsection (a) of section 51-51l of the general statutes is
2871 passage):

2872 (a) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, the Judicial 2873 Review Council shall investigate every written complaint brought 2874 before it alleging conduct under section 51-51i, and may initiate an 2875 investigation of any judge, compensation commissioner or family 2876 support magistrate if (1) the council has reason to believe conduct under 2877 section 51-51i has occurred or (2) previous complaints indicate a pattern 2878 of behavior which would lead to a reasonable belief that conduct under 2879 section 51-51i has occurred. The council shall, not later than five days 2880 after such initiation of an investigation or receipt of such complaint, 2881 notify by registered or certified mail any judge, compensation

2882 commissioner or family support magistrate under investigation or 2883 against whom such complaint is filed. A copy of any such complaint 2884 shall accompany such notice. The council shall also notify the 2885 complainant of its receipt of such complaint not later than five days 2886 thereafter. Any investigation to determine whether or not there is 2887 probable cause that conduct under section 51-51i has occurred shall be 2888 confidential and any individual called by the council for the purpose of 2889 providing information shall not disclose his knowledge of such 2890 investigation to a third party prior to the decision of the council on 2891 whether probable cause exists, unless the respondent requests that such 2892 investigation and disclosure be open, provided information known or 2893 obtained independently of any such investigation shall not be 2894 confidential. The judge, compensation commissioner or family support 2895 magistrate shall have the right to appear and be heard and to offer any 2896 information which may tend to clear him of probable cause to believe 2897 he is guilty of conduct under section 51-51i. The judge, compensation 2898 commissioner or family support magistrate shall also have the right to 2899 be represented by legal counsel and examine and cross-examine 2900 witnesses. In conducting its investigation under this subsection, the 2901 council may request that a court furnish to the council a record or 2902 transcript of court proceedings, including records and transcripts of 2903 juvenile matters pursuant to section 46b-124, as amended by this act, 2904 and records and transcripts of cases involving youthful offenders 2905 pursuant to section 54-76l, as amended by this act, made or prepared by 2906 a court reporter, assistant court reporter or monitor and the court shall, 2907 upon such request, furnish such record or transcript.

2909 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October

2912 authority, to appear before the Supreme Court or Judicial Review 2913 Council to testify in relation to any complaint brought to or by the court 2914 or council against a judge, compensation commissioner or family 2915 support magistrate for conduct alleged in section 51-51i, [or] in relation

2916 to any matter referred to the council by the Chief Court Administrator 2917 pursuant to section 51-45b, or in relation to any matter before the council 2918 pursuant to section 51-49, and may be compelled, by subpoena signed 2919 by competent authority, to produce before the court or council, for 2920 examination, any books or papers which in the judgment of the court or 2921 council or any judges, compensation commissioners or family support 2922 magistrates under investigation are relevant to the inquiry or 2923 investigation. The court or council, while engaged in the discharge of its 2924 duties, shall have the same authority over witnesses as is provided in 2925 section 51-35 and may commit for contempt for a period no longer than 2926 thirty days.

3036 46a-54, section 46a-59, 46b-22, 46b-24, 46b-34, 47-34a, 47-47, 49-8a, 49-16, 3037 53-133, 53-199, 53-212a, 53-249a, 53-252, 53-264, 53-280, 53-302a, 53-303e, 3038 53-311a, 53-321, 53-322, 53-323, 53-331 or 53-344, subsection (c) of section 3039 53-344b, or section 53-450, or (2) a violation under the provisions of 3040 chapter 268, or (3) a violation of any regulation adopted in accordance 3041 with the provisions of section 12-484, 12-487 or 13b-410, or (4) a violation 3042 of any ordinance, regulation or bylaw of any town, city or borough, 3043 except violations of building codes and the health code, for which the 3044 penalty exceeds ninety dollars but does not exceed two hundred fifty 3045 dollars, unless such town, city or borough has established a payment 3046 and hearing procedure for such violation pursuant to section 7-152c, 3047 shall follow the procedures set forth in this section.

3048 Sec. 45. Subsection (a) of section 52-212 of the general statutes is 3049 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3050 passage):

3051 (a) Any judgment rendered or decree passed upon a default or 3052 nonsuit in the Superior Court may be set aside, within four months 3053 following the date on which [it was rendered or passed] the notice of 3054 judgment or decree was sent, and the case reinstated on the docket, on 3055 such terms in respect to costs as the court deems reasonable, upon the 3056 complaint or written motion of any party or person prejudiced thereby, 3057 showing reasonable cause, or that a good cause of action or defense in 3058 whole or in part existed at the time of the rendition of the judgment or 3059 the passage of the decree, and that the plaintiff or defendant was 3060 prevented by mistake, accident or other reasonable cause from 3061 prosecuting the action or making the defense.

3062 Sec. 46. Section 52-212a of the general statutes is repealed and the 3063 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

3064 Unless otherwise provided by law and except in such cases in which 3065 the court has continuing jurisdiction, a civil judgment or decree 3066 rendered in the Superior Court may not be opened or set aside unless a 3067 motion to open or set aside is filed within four months following the 3068 date on which [it was rendered or passed] the notice of judgment or 3069 decree was sent. The continuing jurisdiction conferred on the court in 3070 preadoptive proceedings pursuant to subsection (o) of section 17a-112 3071 does not confer continuing jurisdiction on the court for purposes of 3072 reopening a judgment terminating parental rights. The parties may 3073 waive the provisions of this section or otherwise submit to the 3074 jurisdiction of the court, provided the filing of an amended petition for 3075 termination of parental rights does not constitute a waiver of the 3076 provisions of this section or a submission to the jurisdiction of the court 3077 to reopen a judgment terminating parental rights.

3078 Sec. 47. Subsection (d) of section 52-361b of the general statutes is

3079 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3080 passage):

3081 (d) Except as provided in section 52-367b, as amended by this act, a 3082 judgment debtor may claim an exemption as to property or earnings 3083 sought to be levied on, or may seek a modification of a wage execution, 3084 in a supplemental proceeding to the original action by return of a signed 3085 exemption claim form, indicating the property or earnings claimed to be 3086 exempt or the nature of the claim for modification being made, the class 3087 of any exemption claimed, and the name and address of any employer, 3088 or other person holding such property or earnings, to the Superior 3089 Court. Any claim with respect to a personal property execution under 3090 section 52-356a shall be returned within twenty days after levy on such 3091 property. On receipt of the claim, the clerk of the court shall promptly 3092 [set] schedule the matter for a [short calendar] hearing and give notice 3093 of the exemption or modification claimed and the hearing date to all 3094 parties and to any employer or other third person holding such property 3095 or earnings.

3096 Sec. 48. Subsection (d) of section 52-362 of the general statutes is 3097 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3098 passage):

3099 (d) An obligor may claim a defense based upon mistake of fact, may 3100 claim an exemption in accordance with subsection (e) of this section 3101 with respect to the withholding order, or may file by motion a 3102 modification or defense to the support order being enforced by the 3103 withholding, by delivering a signed claim form, or other written notice 3104 or motion, with the address of the obligor thereon, indicating the nature 3105 of the claim or grounds of the motion, to the clerk of the Superior Court 3106 or the assistant clerk of the Family Support Magistrate Division within 3107 fifteen days of receipt of notice. On receipt of the claim or motion, the 3108 clerk shall promptly enter the appearance of the obligor, [set] schedule 3109 the matter for a [short calendar] hearing, send a file-stamped copy of the 3110 claim or motion to the person or agency of the state to whom the support 3111 order is payable and notify all parties of the hearing date set. The court

3112 or family support magistrate shall promptly hear and determine the 3113 claim or motion and notify the obligor within forty-five days from the 3114 date of the notice required under subsection (c) of this section of its 3115 determination. Unless the obligor successfully shows cause why the 3116 withholding order should not continue in effect, the court or family 3117 support magistrate shall order that the outstanding withholding order 3118 continue in effect against the nonexempt income of the obligor to the 3119 extent provided under subsection (e) of this section. The order shall be 3120 a final judgment for purposes of appeal. The effect of the withholding 3121 order shall not be stayed on appeal except by order of the court or a 3122 family support magistrate.

3123 Sec. 49. Subsection (f) of section 52-367b of the general statutes is 3124 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3125 passage):

3126 (f) (1) Upon receipt of an exemption claim form or a secured party 3127 claim notice, the clerk of the court shall enter the appearance of the 3128 judgment debtor or such secured party with the address set forth in the 3129 exemption claim form or secured party claim notice. The clerk shall 3130 forthwith send file-stamped copies of the exemption claim form or 3131 secured party claim notice to the judgment creditor and judgment 3132 debtor with a notice stating that the disputed funds are being held for 3133 forty-five days from the date the exemption claim form or secured party 3134 claim notice was received by the financial institution or until a court 3135 order is entered regarding the disposition of the funds, whichever 3136 occurs earlier, and the clerk shall [automatically] promptly schedule the 3137 matter for a [short calendar] hearing. The claim of exemption filed by 3138 such judgment debtor shall be prima facie evidence at such hearing of 3139 the existence of the exemption.

3140 (2) Upon receipt of notice from the financial institution pursuant to 3141 subsection (c) of this section, a judgment creditor may, on an ex parte 3142 basis, present to a judge of the Superior Court an affidavit sworn under 3143 oath by a competent party demonstrating a reasonable belief that such 3144 judgment debtor's account contains funds which are not exempt from 3145 execution and the amount of such nonexempt funds. Such affidavit shall 3146 not be conclusory but is required to show the factual basis upon which 3147 the reasonable belief is based. If such judge finds that the judgment 3148 creditor has demonstrated a reasonable belief that such judgment 3149 debtor's account contains funds which are not exempt from execution, 3150 such judge shall authorize the judgment creditor to submit a written 3151 application to the clerk of the court for a hearing on the exempt status 3152 of funds left in the judgment debtor's account pursuant to subsection (c) 3153 of this section. The judgment creditor shall promptly send a copy of the 3154 application and the supporting affidavit to the judgment debtor and to 3155 any secured party shown on a secured party claim notice sent to the 3156 judgment creditor pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection. Upon 3157 receipt of such application, the clerk of the court shall [automatically] 3158 promptly schedule the matter for a [short calendar] hearing and shall 3159 give written notice to the judgment creditor, the judgment debtor and 3160 any secured party shown on a secured party claim notice received by 3161 the clerk of the court. The notice to the judgment creditor pursuant to 3162 subsection (c) of this section shall be prima facie evidence at such 3163 hearing that the funds in the account are exempt funds. The burden of 3164 proof shall be upon the judgment creditor to establish the amount of 3165 funds which are not exempt.

3166 Sec. 50. Subsection (b) of section 54-76l of the general statutes is
3168 passage):

3169 (b) The records of any such youth, or any part thereof, may be 3170 disclosed to and between individuals and agencies, and employees of 3171 such agencies, providing services directly to the youth, including law 3172 enforcement officials, state and federal prosecutorial officials, school 3173 officials in accordance with section 10-233h, court officials, the Division 3174 of Criminal Justice, the Court Support Services Division and a victim 3175 advocate under section 54-220 for a victim of a crime committed by the 3176 youth. Such records shall also be available to the attorney representing 3177 the youth, in any proceedings in which such records are relevant, to the 3178 parents or guardian of such youth, until such time as the youth reaches

3179 the age of majority or is emancipated, and to the youth upon his or her 3180 emancipation or attainment of the age of majority, provided proof of the 3181 identity of such youth is submitted in accordance with guidelines 3182 prescribed by the Chief Court Administrator. Such records shall also be 3183 available to members and employees of the Board of Pardons and 3184 Paroles and employees of the Department of Correction who, in the 3185 performance of their duties, require access to such records, provided the 3186 subject of the record has been adjudged a youthful offender and 3187 sentenced to a term of imprisonment or been convicted of a crime in the 3188 regular criminal docket of the Superior Court, and such records are 3189 relevant to the performance of a risk and needs assessment of such 3190 person while such person is incarcerated, the determination of such 3191 person's suitability for release from incarceration or for a pardon, or the 3192 determination of the supervision and treatment needs of such person 3193 while on parole or other supervised release. Such records shall also be 3194 available to law enforcement officials and prosecutorial officials 3195 conducting legitimate criminal investigations. Such records shall also be 3196 available to members and employees of the Judicial Review Council 3197 who, in the performance of their duties, require access to such records.
3198 Records disclosed pursuant to this subsection shall not be further 3199 disclosed.

3201 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3202 passage):

3204 issue a certificate of rehabilitation to an eligible offender who is under 3205 the supervision of the division while on probation or other supervised 3206 release, or may issue a new certificate of rehabilitation to enlarge the 3207 relief previously granted under such certificate of rehabilitation or 3208 revoke any such certificate of rehabilitation in accordance with the 3209 provisions of section 54-130e, as amended by this act, that are applicable 3210 to certificates of rehabilitation. If the division issues, enlarges the relief 3211 previously granted under a certificate of rehabilitation or revokes a 3212 certificate of rehabilitation under this section, the division shall

3213 immediately file written notice of such action with the Board of Pardons 3214 and Paroles. Nothing in section 54-130e, as amended by this act, shall 3215 require the division to continue monitoring the criminal activity of any 3216 person to whom the division has issued a certificate of rehabilitation but 3217 who is no longer under the supervision of the division.

3218 Sec. 52. Section 54-130e of the general statutes is repealed and the 3257 (b) The Board of Pardons and Paroles may issue a provisional pardon 3258 or a certificate of rehabilitation to relieve an eligible offender of barriers 3259 or forfeitures by reason of such person's conviction of the crime or 3260 crimes specified in such provisional pardon or certificate of 3261 rehabilitation. Such provisional pardon or certificate of rehabilitation 3262 may be limited to one or more enumerated barriers or forfeitures or may 3281 rehabilitation is to be issued is an eligible offender;

3282 (2) The relief to be granted by the provisional pardon or the certificate 3283 of rehabilitation may promote the public policy of rehabilitation of ex-3284 offenders through employment; and

3285 (3) The relief to be granted by the provisional pardon or the certificate 3286 of rehabilitation is consistent with the public interest in public safety, 3287 the safety of any victim of the offense and the protection of property.

3288 (e) In accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of this section, 3289 the board may limit the applicability of the provisional pardon or the 3290 certificate of rehabilitation to specified types of employment or licensure 3291 for which the eligible offender is otherwise qualified.

3292 (f) The board may, for the purpose of determining whether such 3293 provisional pardon or certificate of rehabilitation should be issued,

3304 pardon or the certificate of rehabilitation shall be deemed to be 3305 temporary until the eligible offender completes such eligible offender's 3306 term of incarceration, probation, [or] parole or special parole. During 3307 the period that such provisional pardon or certificate of rehabilitation is 3308 temporary, the board may revoke such provisional pardon or certificate 3309 of rehabilitation for a violation of the conditions of such eligible 3310 offender's probation, [or] parole or special parole. After the eligible 3311 offender completes such eligible offender's term of incarceration, 3312 probation, [or] parole or special parole, the temporary provisional 3313 pardon or certificate of rehabilitation shall become permanent.

3314 (h) The board may at any time issue a new provisional pardon or 3315 certificate of rehabilitation to enlarge the relief previously granted, and 3325 (j) If a [temporary] provisional pardon or certificate of rehabilitation 3326 issued under this section or section 54-108f, as amended by this act, is 3327 revoked, the barriers and forfeitures thereby relieved shall be reinstated 3328 as of the date the person to whom the [temporary] provisional pardon 3329 or certificate of rehabilitation was issued receives written notice of the 3337 certificate of rehabilitation. Nothing in this subsection shall require the 3338 board to continue monitoring the criminal activity of any person to 3339 whom the board has issued a provisional pardon or certificate of 3340 rehabilitation but who is no longer under parole or special parole 3341 supervision.

3343 shall submit to the Office of Policy and Management and the
