OLR Bill Analysis
SB 854

AN ACT CONCERNING A LIST OF THE 100 MOST DELINQUENT CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGORS.

SUMMARY
This bill repeals the requirement that the Office of Child Support Services within the Department of Social Services (DSS) (1) establish, maintain, and periodically update a list of all delinquent child support obligors and (2) publish, on the DSS website, a list of the 100 individuals with the highest delinquent child support obligations. (In practice, DSS has never published this list.)

Under current law, a “delinquent child support obligor” is a person who (1) owes overdue court-ordered child support that amounts to more than 90 days of his or her periodic payments on a current child support or arrearage payment order or (2) has failed to (a) make court-ordered medical or dental insurance coverage available within 90 days after the order or (b) maintain the coverage for 90 days.
