AN ACT CONCERNING CIVILIAN POLICE REVIEW BOARDS,
SECURITY GUARDS, BODY-WORN RECORDING EQUIPMENT
AND SEARCHES BY POLICE.

AMENDMENT

LCO No.: 9414

File Copy No.: 593

Senate Calendar No.: 343

OFA Fiscal Note

See Fiscal Note Details

The amendment creates a new class D felony for enticing a juvenile to commit a criminal act and results in a potential cost for incarceration or probation and a potential revenue gain from fines. On average, the marginal cost to the state for incarcerating an offender for the year is $2,200¹ while the average marginal cost for supervision in the community is less than $700² each year.

The amendment also add additional crimes that are not eligible for erasure, requires the Judicial Department to conduct a study on various causes for juvenile recidivism, and makes other technical and clarifying changes that do not result in a fiscal impact.

The preceding Fiscal Impact statement is prepared for the benefit of the members of the General Assembly, solely for the purposes of information, summarization and explanation and does not represent the intent of the General Assembly or either chamber thereof for any purpose. In general, fiscal impacts are based upon a variety of informational sources, including the analyst's professional knowledge. Whenever applicable, agency data is

¹ Inmate marginal cost is based on increased consumables (e.g. food, clothing, water, sewage, living supplies, etc.) This does not include a change in staffing costs or utility expenses because these would only be realized if a unit or facility opened.

² Probation marginal cost is based on services provided by private providers and only includes costs that increase with each additional participant. This does not include a cost for additional supervision by a probation officer unless a new offense is anticipated to result in enough additional offenders to require additional probation officers.
