Issue

Summarize Connecticut’s hate crime laws, including recent legislative changes. (This report updates OLR Report 2017-R-0196.) This report has been updated by OLR Report 2024-R-0043.

Summary

Connecticut has several statutes that address hate crimes. The statutes protect a range of people, enhance penalties for bias crimes, and allow injured parties and the attorney general to sue for money damages.

The primary criminal statutes are the “intimidation based on bigotry or bias” crimes with three degrees of penalties. They address certain actions that intimidate or harass another person motivated, in whole or in substantial part, by his or her actual or perceived race, religion, ethnicity, disability, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. The other criminal statutes that address hate crimes include:

1. deprivation of rights, desecration of property, and cross burning;
2. deprivation of a person’s civil rights by someone wearing a mask or hood;
3. ridicule on account of race, creed, or color;
4. certain threatening crimes; and

2021 Legislation

PA 21-78, §§ 17-19, effective October 1, 2021, expands 1st, 2nd, and 3rd degree intimidation to include actions that are “motivated in whole or in substantial part by” any of the attributes specified under existing law, whether actual or perceived. (See below)

PA 21-128, effective July 1, 2021, expands the attorney general’s authority to investigate allegations of certain hate crimes and civil rights violations, initiate legal proceedings, and seek relief for affected persons.
5. deprivation of a person’s equal rights and privileges by force or threat.

This report also describes other provisions on hate crimes, including persistent offender status; anti-bias or diversity awareness programs as conditions of accelerated rehabilitation, probation, and conditional discharge; the attorney general’s authority regarding hate crimes and civil rights violations; the state-wide hate crimes advisory council; and police training.

Intimidation Based on Bigotry or Bias Crimes

The crimes of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd degree intimidation based on bigotry or bias address certain actions that intimidate or harass another person and are motivated, in whole or in substantial part, by following attributes: the person’s actual or perceived race, religion, ethnicity, disability, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression.

“Gender identity or expression” is defined as a person’s gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior, whether or not it is different from what is traditionally associated with the person’s assigned sex at birth (CGS § 53a-181i(2)).

“Disability” is defined as:

1. a mental disability—one or more mental disorders as defined in the American Psychiatric Association’s “Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders”;
2. a physical disability—a chronic physical handicap, infirmity, or impairment, whether congenital or from bodily injury, organic process or change, or illness, including blindness, epilepsy, deafness, hearing impairment, or reliance on a wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device; or
3. intellectual disability— a significant limitation in intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested during the developmental period before age 18 (CGS § 53a-181i(1)).

First-Degree Intimidation

A person commits the 1st degree crime of intimidation based on bigotry or bias if he or she, maliciously and with specific intent to intimidate or harass someone, motivated in whole or substantial part by any of the attributes listed above, whether actual or perceived, caused physical injury to that person or a third person (CGS § 53a-181j, as amended by PA 21-78, § 17, effective October 1, 2021).
Second-Degree Intimidation

A person commits the 2nd degree crime of intimidation if he or she acts maliciously and with specific intent to intimidate or harass another individual or a group of people, motivated in whole or substantial part by any of the attributes listed above, whether actual or perceived, by:

1. making physical contact with the victim;

2. damaging, destroying, or defacing property; or

3. threatening to do either of these things, and the victim has reasonable cause to believe he or she will carry out the threat (CGS § 53a-181k, as amended by PA 21-78, § 18, effective October 1, 2021).

Third-Degree Intimidation

A person commits the 3rd degree crime if he or she intends to intimidate or harass someone or a group of people, motivated in whole or substantial part by any of the attributes listed above, whether actual or perceived, and he or she (1) damages, destroys, or defaces any property or (2) threatens to do so by word or act or advocates or urges another person to do so and gives the victim reasonable cause to believe the act will occur (CGS § 53a-181l, as amended by PA 21-78, § 19, effective October 1, 2021).

Penalties

Table 1 summarizes the penalties for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd degree intimidation based on bigotry or bias, including the minimum fine the court can impose depending on the degree of the crime.

*Unless the court states on the record its reasons for canceling or reducing the minimum fine
Record and Classification of Crimes Motivated by Bigotry or Bias

Town police departments, resident state troopers, and constables who perform law enforcement duties must monitor, record, and classify the intimidation crimes (i.e., 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, degree intimidation based on bigotry or bias). They must report the data to the State Police which must also monitor, record, and classify these crimes (CGS § 29-7m).

Action for Damages

A person alleging injury (“the injured party”) due to conduct that falls under these crimes can sue for damages for his or her injury. The court must award triple damages if the injured party prevails and may award equitable relief and reasonable attorney’s fees. The injured party must file the lawsuit within three years of the acts complained of (CGS § 52-571c).

Deprivation of Rights, Desecration of Property, and Cross Burning

It is a crime to:

1. deprive someone, or cause the deprivation, of any legally guaranteed right because of his religion, national origin, alienage, color, race, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, blindness, mental disability, physical disability, or veteran-status;

2. intentionally desecrate any public property, monument, or structure; religious object, symbol, or house of worship; cemetery; or private structure not owned by the offender;

3. place a burning cross or simulation of one on public property, or on private property without the owner’s written consent, with the intent to intimidate or harass someone or a group of people; or

4. placing a noose or simulation of one on public property, or on private property without the owner’s written consent, and with the intent to harass someone because of his or her religion, national origin, alienage, color, race, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, blindness, mental disability, physical disability, or veteran-status (CGS § 46a-58).

Penalties

The offenses described above are class A misdemeanors, but it is a class D felony if there is more than $1,000 of property damage. The law imposes a minimum fine of $1,000 whether the crime is a misdemeanor or a felony (CGS § 46a-58(e)(1)).

The penalties for intentional desecration of a house of religious worship, are shown in Table 2.

The court is prohibited from canceling or reducing the minimum fines unless it states on the record its reasons for doing so. The law also specifically allows the court to order the offender to pay financial restitution to the victim (CGS § 46a-58(e)(2), et. seq).

Conditions of Probation and Conditional Discharge

By law, a court, as a condition of probation or conditional discharge, may require an offender to participate in certain programs if he or she is convicted of (1) intimidation based on bigotry or bias, (2) deprivation of rights or property (including through cross burning or placing a noose on property), or (3) deprivation of a person’s civil rights by a person wearing a mask or hood (CGS § 53a-30).

The law allows the court to require the offender to participate in (1) an anti-bias or diversity awareness program or (2) a community service program designed to remedy the damage caused by the commission of a bias crime or otherwise related to the defendant’s violation (CGS § 53a-30(a)(15)).

Deprivation of a Person’s Civil Rights By Person Wearing a Mask or a Hood

For crimes involving depriving someone of his constitutional rights, desecrating property, or burning a cross under certain circumstances, it is a class D felony if the person (1) commits the crime while wearing a mask, hood, or other device designed to conceal his identity and (2) intends to deprive another person of any legally guaranteed right because of his religion, national origin, alienage, color, race, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, blindness, or physical disability (CGS § 53-37a & CGS § 46a-58).
Ridicule on Account of Race, Creed, or Color

A person commits this crime if he or she ridicules or holds up to contempt any person or class of people on account of creed, religion, color, denomination, nationality, or race. This is a class D misdemeanor (CGS § 53-37).

Threatening Crimes

First-Degree Threatening

By law, 1st degree threatening includes threats to commit a violent crime or a crime using a hazardous substance with intent to cause, or with reckless disregard of the risk of (1) causing evacuation of a building, place of assembly, or public transportation facility; (2) causing serious public inconvenience; or (3) for hazardous substance crimes, terrifying a person.

First degree threatening is a class D felony. The law enhances the penalty to a class C felony if the threat was made with intent to cause the evacuation of the building or grounds of a house of religious worship, religiously-affiliated community center, preschool, school, higher education institution, or day care center during operating hours or when the buildings or grounds are being used to (1) provide religious or community services or (2) conduct activities sponsored by the house of worship, community center, preschool, school, institution, or day care (CGS § 53a-61aa).

A “religiously-affiliated community center” is real property (1) used for providing recreational, social, or educational services and (2) owned or leased by a nonprofit organization that holds the property out as being affiliated with an organized religion (CGS § 53a-61aa(c)).

Second-Degree Threatening

By law, 2nd degree threatening consists of (1) intentionally causing, or attempting to cause, someone to fear imminent serious physical injury by physical threat or (2) threatening to commit a violent crime with intent to terrorize someone or in reckless disregard of the risk of doing so.

Under the law, 2nd degree threatening is a class A misdemeanor. However, the penalty is enhanced to a class D felony if the threatened person was in the building or on the grounds of a house of religious worship, religiously-affiliated community center (see above), preschool, school, higher education institution, or day care center during operating hours or when the buildings or grounds are being used to (1) provide religious or community services or (2) conduct activities sponsored by the house of worship, community center, preschool, school, institution, or day care center (CGS § 53a-62).
Deprivation of a Person’s Equal Rights and Privileges by Force or Threat

A person commits this crime if, with the intent to deprive a another person or class of people of the equal protection or privileges and immunities of the laws of this state or the United States, the person uses force or threats (as provided under 2\textsuperscript{nd} degree threatening above). The prohibition applies to people acting alone or in conspiracy with others.

This is a class A misdemeanor, but it is a class C felony if bodily injury occurs. The crime is a class B felony if death results, punishable by one to 20 years in prison, a fine of up to $15,000, or both (CGS § 53-37b).

Persistent Offenders of Crimes Involving Bigotry or Bias

A persistent offender is a person convicted of any of the following crimes after having been previously convicted of one of them:

1. intimidation based on bigotry or bias;
2. deprivation of rights, desecration of property, or cross burning; or
3. deprivation of rights by a person wearing a mask or hood.

The court must sentence a persistent offender to the next highest class of sentence (e.g., if he or she is convicted of a class A misdemeanor he can be sentenced as though he or she committed a class D felony) (CGS § 53a-40a).

Other Hate Crimes Provisions

Accelerated Rehabilitation and Hate Crimes Diversion Program

A court can require an offender to participate in a hate crimes diversion program as a condition of probation under accelerated rehabilitation (AR). This applies to people charged with (1) deprivation of rights, desecration of property, and cross burning; (2) deprivation of a person’s civil rights by a person wearing a mask or hood; or (3) intimidation based on bigotry or bias.

Subject to court approval, a defendant whose employment or residence makes it unreasonable to attend a hate crimes diversion program in Connecticut, may attend a program in another state that has substantially similar or higher standards.
The hate crimes diversion program consists of an educational program and supervised community service (CGS § 54-56e).

Anti-bias or Diversity Awareness Program as Condition of Probation or Conditional Discharge

A court, as a condition of probation or conditional discharge, may require an offender convicted of the following crimes to participate in an anti-bias or diversity awareness program: (1) bigotry or bias crimes; (2) deprivation of rights, desecration of property, or cross burning; or (3) deprivation of a person’s civil rights by a person wearing a mask or hood (CGS § 53a-30(a)(15)).

Attorney General’s Powers Regarding Hate Crimes and Civil Rights Violations

PA 21-128, effective July 1, 2021, expands the attorney general’s powers to include (1) investigating allegations of certain hate crimes and civil rights violations; (2) initiating related legal proceedings, with certain exceptions; and (3) seeking relief for the affected person. When conducting investigations, the attorney general may issue subpoenas and interrogatories consistent with how he investigates Connecticut Antitrust Act violations. But the act prohibits information obtained from these investigations from being used in a criminal proceeding. It generally prohibits the attorney general from asserting a claim against a state agency, officer, or employee acting in an official capacity.

The act applies to allegations of:

1. 1st, 2nd, or 3rd degree intimidation based on bigotry or bias;
2. conduct that subjects someone, or causes him or her to be subject, to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the U.S. or state constitutions or laws; or
3. conduct that interferes, or attempts to interfere, by threats, intimidation, or coercion, with another individual's exercise or enjoyment of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the U.S. or Connecticut constitutions or laws.

It also establishes a civil penalty of up to $2,500 for each hate crime or civil rights violation that is established by clear and convincing evidence.
State-Wide Hate Crimes Advisory Council

In 2017, the legislature created the State-Wide Hate Crimes Advisory Council (it replaced the Hate Crimes Advisory Committee). The council is within the Office of the Chief State's Attorney for administrative purposes only.

The council must meet at least semiannually to encourage and coordinate programs to increase community awareness, reporting, and combating of hate crimes.

Members and Appointments. The council members include the following individuals, or their designees, the:

1. chief state's attorney and chief public defender;
2. emergency services and public protection commissioner;
3. Connecticut Bar Association, George W. Crawford Black Bar Association, South Asian Bar Association of Connecticut, Connecticut Asian Pacific American Bar Association, and Connecticut Hispanic Bar Association presidents; and

Additionally, the governor must appoint up to 30 representatives of organizations committed to decreasing hate crimes, improving diversity awareness, or representing the interests of groups within the state protected by Connecticut’s intimidation statutes. He must also appoint two members as chairpersons.

Recommendations and Reporting. The council must make recommendations for legislation concerning hate crimes, such as:

1. restitution for victims of such crimes;
2. community service designed to remedy damage caused by, or related to the commission of such crimes; and
3. additional alternative sentencing programs for first-time offenders and juvenile offenders.

The council reports its recommendations to the Judiciary and Public Safety committees annually by October 1 (CGS § 51-279f).
Police Training

Basic or review training programs conducted or administered by the State Police, Police Officer Standards and Training Council, or municipal police departments must include training on crimes motivated by bigotry and bias (CGS § 7-294n).
