Representative Klarides-Ditria asked members if there was any discussion. Senator Osten asked if the committee website was working again. Committee Administrator Kirstin Breiner stated that as of this morning, the site was working but was going to further troubleshoot with ITS to make sure there weren't any additional issues.

Senator Osten also asked LCO about the upcoming emergency regulations regarding gaming coming from the Department of Consumer Protection. She stated that the Administration said they would be before the committee by September. LCO Acting-Director Bill O'Shea said that he knows the Executive Branch is working on them and stated that perhaps they might come before the committee in August at a regularly scheduled meeting or one help expressly for that purpose. Senator Osten asked that members be notified as soon as the regulation gets to LCO and LCO O'Shea stated that they would be.

A motion was duly made by Senator Osten and seconded by Senator Kissel to adjourn the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:07 AM.
