Explanation

Sections 1 and 2 outline exercises for designated days, weeks, and months and may result in minimal costs to various state agencies and municipalities. The cost to affected agencies and municipalities will be dependent upon the location, nature, and size of the exercises.

Section 3, which designates a shelter pet as the state pet, has no fiscal impact.

Section 4, which designates the lollipop as the state candy, has no fiscal impact.

House "A" strikes section 1 which included eight new designated days, weeks, or months and replaces it with nine new designated days, weeks, or months which may result in a minimal cost to various state agencies and municipalities.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to inflation.

The preceding Fiscal Impact statement is prepared for the benefit of the members of the General Assembly, solely for the purposes of information, summarization and explanation and does not represent the intent of the General Assembly or either chamber thereof for any purpose. In general, fiscal impacts are based upon a variety of informational sources, including the analyst's professional knowledge. Whenever applicable, agency data is consulted as part of the analysis, however final products do not necessarily reflect an assessment from any specific department.
