

General Assembly

February Session, 2022

Raised Bill No. 318

LCO No. 1679

Referred to Committee on LABOR AND PUBLIC
EMPLOYEES

Introduced by:
(LAB)

AN ACT CONCERNING CAPTIVE AUDIENCE MEETINGS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General
Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Section 31-51q of the general statutes is repealed and the 2 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2022):

3 (a) As used in this section:

4 (1) "Political matters" means matters relating to elections for political 5 office, political parties, legislation, regulation and the decision to join or 6 support any political party or political, civil, community, fraternal or 7 labor organization;

8 (2) "Religious matters" means matters relating to religious affiliation 9 and practice and the decision to join or support any religious 10 organization or association; and

11 (3) "Rights guaranteed by the first amendment to the United States 12 Constitution or section 3, 4 or 14 of article first of the Constitution of the 13 state" includes, but is not limited to, the right of freedom of speech,

14 freedom of religion and freedom of association, and shall include the 15 right not to be required to listen to speech.

16 [Any] (b) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, 17 any employer, including the state and any instrumentality or political 18 subdivision thereof, who subjects or threatens to subject any employee 19 to discipline or discharge on account of (1) the exercise by such 20 employee of rights guaranteed by the first amendment to the United 21 States Constitution or section 3, 4 or 14 of article first of the Constitution
22 of the state, provided such activity does not substantially or materially 23 interfere with the employee's bona fide job performance or the working 24 relationship between the employee and the employer, or (2) such 25 employee's refusal to (A) attend an employer-sponsored meeting with 26 the employer or its agent, representative or designee, the primary 27 purpose of which is to communicate the employer's opinion concerning 28 religious or political matters, or (B) listen to speech or view 29 communications, the primary purpose of which is to communicate the 30 employer's opinion concerning religious or political matters, shall be 31 liable to such employee for damages caused by such discipline or 32 discharge, including punitive damages, and for reasonable attorney's 33 fees as part of the costs of any [such] action for damages. If the court 34 determines that such action for damages was brought without 35 substantial justification, the court may award costs and reasonable
36 attorney's fees to the employer.

37 (c) Nothing in this section shall prohibit: (1) An employer or its agent,
38 representative or designee from communicating to its employees any 39 information that the employer is required by law to communicate, but 40 only to the extent of such legal requirement; (2) an employer or its agent,
41 representative or designee from communicating to its employees any 42 information that is necessary for such employees to perform their job
43 duties; (3) an institution of higher education, or any agent, 44 representative or designee of such institution, from meeting with or 45 participating in any communications with its employees that are part of 46 coursework, any symposia or an academic program at such institution;

47 (4) casual conversations between employees or an employee and an 48 agent, representative or designee of an employer, provided
49 participation in such conversations is not required; or (5) a requirement
50 limited to the employer's managerial and supervisory employees.

51 (d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a religious 52 corporation, entity, association, educational institution or society that is 53 exempt from the requirements of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
54 pursuant to 42 USC 2000e-1(a) or is exempt from the provisions of 55 sections 4a-60a, 46a-81a and 46a-81o pursuant to section 46a-81p, with 56 respect to speech on religious matters to employees who perform work
57 connected with the activities undertaken by such religious corporation, 58 entity, association, educational institution or society.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
