Explanation

This amendment strikes the underlying bill and its associated fiscal impact.

This amendment requires the Office of Policy and Management (OPM) to include estimated expenditure requirements from the State Contracting Standards Board (SCSB) in proposed budget documents and prohibits the governor from reducing SCSB's allotment requisitions or allotments in force. This is not anticipated to result in a fiscal impact.

Privatization laws are expanded under this amendment to include an analysis or a proposed contract's potential impact on workers of color or workers who are women. Various state agencies may incur a cost to the extent they require additional staff to conduct this analysis.

This amendment makes other various changes to SCSB authority
