
OLR Bill AnalysisHB 6691AN ACT CONCERNING CREDIT CARD ACCESS TO HOME EQUITY LINES OF CREDIT.SUMMARY

State law allows a consumer revolving loan (e.g., home equity line of credit) secured by an open-end mortgage to have the same priority as the mortgage over the rights of others to a property the mortgage is attached to if specific conditions concerning the loan and mortgage are met. This bill changes current law's conditions on the consumer revolving loans to allow mortgagors (borrowers) to access the proceeds from these loans by credit card, credit plate, or any similar payment methods, if offered by their mortgagors (lenders).

Under this property rights prioritization law, a "consumer revolving loan" must, among other things, be a loan secured by a mortgage on residential real property and its proceeds must be intended for personal, family, or household purposes. To be eligible under current law, the loan agreement between the lender and borrower must not authorize access to the loan proceeds by a credit card or any similar instrument or device that can be used to obtain money, goods, services, or anything else of value on credit. The bill eliminates this requirement.
