OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

The bill makes various changes to statutes regarding juvenile justice and does not have a fiscal impact.

Section 1 is not anticipated to have a fiscal impact to the Court Support Services Division of the Judicial Branch (CSSD), the Departments of Children and Families (DCF), Education (SDE) and Correction (DOC), local and regional boards of education, and JRBs to develop a plan for mandatory prearrest diversion of low-risk children, and automatic prearrest diversion of children to the community-based diversion system or other community-based service providers in lieu of arrest for first or second offenses, by July 1, 2024.

Section 2 expands the membership and purpose of the Juvenile Justice Policy Oversight Committee and does not have a fiscal impact.

Section 3 is not anticipated to have a fiscal impact to CSSD, DCF, SDE, and DOC to develop a reentry success plan, by November 1, 2023, in consultation with certain subcommittees of the Juvenile Justice Policy and Oversight Committee, for youth released from DOC and facilities and programs under the jurisdiction of the Judicial Department.

Section 4 requires the Judicial branch to review and update an implementation plan to have custody of all minors in the justice system and does not have a fiscal impact.

House "A" strikes the underlying bill and its associated fiscal impact resulting in the impact described above.
