The amendment expands the definition of murder under certain circumstances which results in a potential cost to the Department of Correction and Judicial Department and a potential revenue gain from fines. On average, the marginal cost to the state for incarcerating an offender for the year is $2,500<sup>1</sup> while the average marginal cost for supervision in the community is less than $800<sup>2</sup> each year.

<sup>1</sup> Inmate marginal cost is based on increased consumables (e.g. food, clothing, water, sewage, living supplies, etc.) This does not include a change in staffing costs or utility expenses because these would only be realized if a unit or facility opened.

<sup>2</sup> Probation marginal cost is based on services provided by private providers and only includes costs that increase with each additional participant. This does not include a cost for additional supervision by a probation officer unless a new offense is anticipated to result in enough additional offenders to require additional probation officers.
