OFA Fiscal Note

Minimal Fiscal Impact

The amendment expands (1) the circumstances under which a death can be classified as in the line of duty, and (2) the provisions of the bill to include emergency medical services (EMS) personnel. This results in a minimal increase to the fiscal impacts identified in the underlying bill.^{1,2}

The preceding Fiscal Impact statement is prepared for the benefit of the members of the General Assembly, solely for the purposes of information, summarization and explanation and does not represent the intent of the General Assembly or either chamber thereof for any purpose. In general, fiscal impacts are based upon a variety of informational sources, including the analyst's professional knowledge. Whenever applicable, agency data is consulted as part of the analysis, however final products do not necessarily reflect an assessment from any specific department.

¹The underlying bill results in the following fiscal impacts: (1) a minimal potential revenue loss to the tuition funds of the higher education constituent units, (2) a minimal potential cost to the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, (3) a potential cost to the State Comptroller and various municipalities, and (4) a potential revenue loss to various municipalities.

²With respect to state and municipal benefits only, EMS personnel (specifically emergency medical technicians) only qualify for the property tax abatement corresponding to a potential revenue loss to various municipalities.
