Testimony:

Dear Members of the Connecticut Correctional Advisory Committee,

I am writing to express my wholehearted support for Mr. Ken Krayeske's application to the position of Correctional Ombudsman. I have had the privilege of knowing Ken for several years, and our relationship has extended into shared personal experiences, such as cycling, family gatherings, and camping trips.

Ken's steadfast commitment to justice makes him an outstanding candidate for the Correctional Ombudsman role. His independent and analytical mindset, coupled with his empathetic nature and genuine interest in people's stories, equips him with the essential qualities required for this position.

Ken is not only a passionate advocate for justice but also a genuinely compassionate individual. His warmth and concern for others are evident not only in his professional pursuits but also in his personal life. A testament to his compassion is his practice of requesting donations to the diaper bank in lieu of personal gifts.

I am confident that Ken's unique blend of integrity, independence, and empathy would make a significant and positive impact as a Correctional Ombudsman. I wholeheartedly recommend him for this crucial role, believing that he will contribute to the advancement of justice within the correctional system.
